

(Mr. van Schaik, Netherlands)

I will now turn to my second subject, chemical weapons. I think we all here around this table share the objective of the establishment of a comprehensive agreement effectively banning the production, stockpiling and use of all chemical weapons. I hope that all of us also have the same perception of the urgent need to reach agreement on such an effectively verifiable convention. Recent reports on the repeated use of chemical weapons

(continued)