

I should also like to reply to allegations that have been made in the Security Council and in the General Assembly that the Federal Republic of Germany and Portugal were negotiating the sale of Canadian built military aircraft. I should like to state here that the Canadian Government has good reason for believing that no Canadian built military aircraft have been or are being sold or otherwise transferred to Portugal by the Federal Republic of Germany.

Mr. Chairman, for the reasons I have already stated, the Canadian delegation will be unable to support the resolution before us.
