

3. No authentication or further certification of documents submitted in support of a request for extradition shall be required.
4. Translations of documents provided by the Requesting State and submitted in support of a request for extradition shall be admissible for all purposes in extradition proceedings.

ARTICLE VIII

Additional Information

If the Requested State considers that the information furnished in support of the request for extradition of a person is not sufficient to fulfill the requirements of this Treaty, that State may request that the necessary additional information be furnished within such time as it specifies; this deadline may be extended by the Requested State.

ARTICLE IX

Provisional Arrest

1. In case of urgency, the Requesting State may apply in writing through the International Criminal Police Organization (INTERPOL) or to the competent authorities of the Requested State for the provisional arrest of the person sought pending the presentation of the request for extradition.
2. The application for provisional arrest shall include:
 - (a) information about the description, identity, nationality and location of the person sought;
 - (b) a statement of intent to request extradition;
 - (c) a legal description of the offence and the date, place and a summary of the facts relating thereto;
 - (d) a statement indicating that an order of arrest or any other order having the same effect was issued and its terms and conditions, or that a conviction was pronounced; and
 - (e) a statement indicating the maximum term of imprisonment that may be or was imposed and, where applicable, that remains to be served.
