

ARTICLE 22

Payment of Benefits

A Party shall pay benefits under this Convention in a freely convertible currency directly to a beneficiary, or representative authorized under the laws of that Party, who resides outside its territory without any deduction for its administrative expenses.

ARTICLE 23

Resolution of Disputes

1. The Parties, through their liaison agencies or competent authorities, shall resolve all disputes of an administrative nature that arise in interpreting or applying this Convention in accordance with the spirit and fundamental principles of this Convention.
2. The Parties shall promptly settle any dispute that is not resolved in accordance with paragraph 1.
