

Undertaking
to pay
costs.

(2) In a requisition made under this Part there shall be embodied an unconditional undertaking by the Attorney General that the province shall pay to His Majesty all expenses and costs incurred by His Majesty by reason of the Canadian Forces or any part thereof being called out for service in aid of the civil power, as by the requisition required. 5

Statements
of fact
to be
binding
on the province.

(3) Every statement of fact contained in a requisition made under this Part shall be conclusive and binding upon the province on behalf of which the requisition is made, and every undertaking or promise in the requisition shall be binding upon the province and not open to question or dispute by reason of alleged incompetence or lack of authority on the part of the Attorney General or for any other reason. 10 15

Inquiry
and report
by Attorney General.

(4) In every case where a requisition is made under this Part, the Attorney General of the province concerned shall, within seven days after the making of the requisition, cause an inquiry to be made into the circumstances which occasioned the calling out of the Canadian Forces or any part thereof, and shall send a report upon the circumstances to the Secretary of State. 20

Statements
not open to dispute.

(5) A statement of fact contained in a requisition made under this Part shall not be open to dispute by the Officer Commanding a Command upon whom the requisition is made. 25

Officers
and men
have powers of constables.

224. Officers and men when called out for service in aid of the civil power shall, without further authority or appointment and without taking oath of office, be held to have and may exercise, in addition to their powers and duties as officers and men, all of the powers and duties of constables, so long as they remain so called out, but they shall act only as a military body, and shall be individually liable to obey the orders of their superior officers. 30

Duration of aid of civil power.

225. The Canadian Forces or any part thereof called out in aid of the civil power shall remain on duty in such strength as the Officer Commanding a Command, who has carried into effect a requisition of an Attorney General made under this Part, deems necessary or orders, until notification is received from the Attorney General that the Canadian Forces are no longer required in aid of the civil power; and the Officer Commanding a Command may, from time to time as in his opinion the exigencies of the situation require, increase or diminish the number of officers and men called out; except that officers and men of the Royal Canadian Navy and the Royal Canadian Air Force called out to assist the Canadian Army in aid of the 35 40 45
