

Thomas D'Arcy Gee

Mr. Nicholson: I wonder whether the minister would answer one more question. He told us that he expected to finish this session on Saturday, and some members have made reservations to go home on Friday. Could the minister tell us if he still expects to finish on Saturday?

Mr. Green: Mr. Speaker, the members in question can go home tomorrow if they wish.

Mr. Knowles (Winnipeg North Centre): The minister and I will still be here.

HOUSE OF COMMONS

PRESENTATION OF PORTRAIT OF THOMAS
D'ARCY MCGEE

Mr. Speaker: It has been suggested that some members might like to have as an appendix to Hansard the short address given today by Dr. Emmett J. Mullally, president of the Thomas D'Arcy McGee Associates, on the presentation by the associates to the House of Commons of a portrait of Thomas D'Arcy McGee, one of the fathers of confederation.

Is it the pleasure of the house that this address be printed as an appendix to Hansard?

Some hon. Members: Agreed.

It being five minutes after ten o'clock the house adjourned, without question put, pursuant to the order of the house passed on December 2, 1957.
