

Mr. Scott (Hamilton—Wentworth): Mr. Speaker, I was present for the first vote but I abstained. I would therefore like my vote recorded with the government side on the assumption will that we go ahead and apply the vote.

Mr. Domm: Mr. Speaker, I would also like to have my vote recorded with the government. I abstained on the amendment.

Mr. Gray (Windsor West): Mr. Speaker, under other circumstances, we might have been willing to consider the application of the previous vote to this motion. It will be impossible for us to do so because we treated our vote on the previous motion as a free vote. Therefore—

Mr. Speaker: All those in favour of the motion will please rise.

The House divided on the motion, which was agreed to on the following division:

(Division No. 386)
