

on our behalf by the Central Dominion Selection Committee has also been offered an appointment in the Agricultural Department of Mauritius. Two other candidates recommended by the Central Board are also receiving careful consideration, but one of them is a specialist and rather difficult to place, and the other will probably prefer to continue his studies for another year before actually standing. We are in correspondence with both.

So you will see that we have actually made a start.

With all good wishes and with my renewed thanks for your great kindness to me in Canada,

Believe me,

Yours very truly,

R. S. Furse
