

I am not in any respect my own; I can challenge no right in myself; I can challenge no right in this understanding, this will, these affections that are in me; neither have I any right to this body nor any of its members; no right to this tongue, these hands, nor feet; no right to these senses, these eyes, these ears, this smell or taste. I have given myself clear away, and have not retained anything as my own. I have been to God this morning, and told Him that I give myself wholly to Him. I have given every power to Him, so that for the future I will challenge no right in myself in any respect. I have expressly promised Him, and do now promise Almighty God, that by His grace I will not. I have this morning told Him that I did take Him for my whole portion and felicity, looking on nothing else as any part of my happiness, nor acting as if it were; and His law for the constant rule of my obedience; and would fight with all my might against the world, the flesh, and the devil, to the end of my life; that I did believe in Jesus Christ, and receive Him as a prince and a Saviour, and would adhere to the faith and obedience of the Gospel, how hazardous and difficult soever the profession and practice of it may be; that I did receive the blessed Spirit as my teacher, sanctifier and only comforter, and cherish all His motions to enlighten, purify, con-
