

Troops, British, expected at Boston, 42.

Arrive at Sandy Hook: depart for Boston, 105.

Troops at West Point, insufficiently clad, 229.

Troup, Robert, lieutenant in Lamb's regiment, 151.

Aid to general Gates, 151.

Deprecates renewal of Tory influences, 206.

His friendship for Lamb, 354.

Tryon, William, governor of New York, 74.

Goes to England, 80.

Raises a corps of loyalists, and is major-general, 154.

Attacks Danbury in Connecticut, and destroys, 158.

Retreats on Norwalk, 159.

Intercepted by Arnold, 153.

At Compo Hill: debarks: his official report, 161.

Commands Reserve at the attack on Fort Montgomery,