

Ont., Five shares or Five hundred dollars, because she was good to my old aunt.

Second.—I give, devise and bequeath to the Provincial University, in Toronto, the remaining One hundred shares of such bonds, or Ten thousand dollars, on the following terms and conditions: namely, That the interest therefrom shall be given from time to time, but not necessarily every year, like the Nobel prizes in a small way: (1) To any Canadian from one end of the country to the other, and whether student or not, who invents or discovers any new and improved process for the treatment of Canadian ores or minerals of any kind, after such process has been proved to be of special merit on a practical scale; (2) or for any important discovery, invention or device, by any Canadian, that will lessen the dangers and loss of life in connection with the use of electricity in supplying power and light; (3) or for any marked public distinction achieved by any Canadian in scientific research in any useful, practical line.

5.—To my said Executors I donate Two hundred and fifty dollars each and all their expenses in administering my estate according to the terms of this Will.

6.—If I should not get my poor autobiography published in my lifetime, I leave the manuscript of it as a sacred trust to my friend, James B. Hammond, of Nairn Centre, Ont., to have it published within one year after my death, the copyright of it to be taken out in his own name and for his own benefit, if any. But if no publishing house in Canada will print
