

BIG PART PLAYED BY GOOD FELLOWS

Over Two Thousand Children
Have the Christmas of Their Lives.

WORK TO CONTINUE

World Good Fellow Will Act
as Agent While Destitution Exists.

Their names headed no roll of Christmas philanthropy. Their good works brought them no publicity, but a thousand Good Fellows yesterday carried good cheer and what is better, food and fuel, into the sorry homes of the city's destitute. And their work was done in the best way that charitable work can be done—personally. These Good Fellows have learned, most of them for the first time, the desperate situation of the poor. One Good Fellow found a woman with six children, all under the age of nine, without a fire in the house. The father had deserted her six months ago, and the poor woman owed four months' rent, was too sick to do the washing, which she pitifully hoped would provide at least nourishment for her babies. Two loaves of bread and 10 cents' worth of potatoes had been that family's only food for four days. The Good Fellow twice unloaded his automobile of groceries and clothing, and he brought playthings for the little kiddies, who crunched in their corner, had almost forgotten how to play. Two tons of coal and the rent paid and two months in advance was the way this Good Fellow obeyed the commands of Christmas time.

Children Found Starving.
Awful want was found in 85 per cent. of the cases attended to by Good Fellows. Worthless fathers, sick mothers, children starving, not just for the good times of other kiddies but actually for food—these were the conditions that confronted the Good Fellow and that cost some of them many dollars. Their good works will go unrecorded except to those most intimately connected, but they got a glow of satisfaction that comes of helping the unfortunate. The Daily and Sunday World acted as agent between the Good Fellow and the needy households and it was part of the agreement that there should be no publicity.

Movement Will Go On.
Further, so many of the Good Fellows have decided to look after their charges through the winter. The World had been led to accept the proposal to make the movement not just a Christmas one, but something that will continue during the winter, or as long as there is need. Any person who wishes to put in touch with a family that needs outside aid is invited to use The World Good Fellow as an agent.

There is Much to Do.
The same rule that brought about an increase in the number of people in a desperate condition decreased the number who were willing to act as Good Fellows. There is much, therefore, for the willing to do, and it can best be done by personal giving. The reasons for this do not need enlarging, the chief is that the deserving poor will get exactly what they deserve, and to be quite honest about it, only as long as they deserve it.

A Bully Good Song
Thousands of the college boys—and men—to whom college days are and were the red-letter days of life—would call the song illustrated in today's paper, a "bully good song"—and would say they had "had a bully good evening"—in singing together once more the many college songs to be found in "Heart Songs."

For instance, "Bohunkus," "Co-ca-che-lunk," "Dutch Company," "Gaudemus Igitur," "Lauriger Horatius," "My Last Cigar," "The Bull Dog," "Rig-a-jig," "Upidee," "Vive la Compagnie"—how these recall the old times on the campus, or in some fellow's quarters, with the fire light flickering, the guitar twanging, and the boys yodeling or joining in the chorus.

But college songs are only one of ten classes contained in this wonderful treasury of song. It is really a book for everybody, everywhere. It took four years to get from 20,000 people their favorite songs—and then to pick out the best 400. But any other way—or any other book—of course, that wouldn't be "Heart Songs!"
