Good Stockers and Feeders Higher, But Veal Calves Lower.

REMAINING STEADY

All Other Classes of Live Stock Held at Former Quotations.

Receipts of live stock at the Union Stock Yards on Tuesday were 57 carloads, comprising 41 cattle, 22 hogs, 18 sheep, 401 calves and 14 horses.

A few odd cattle of choice quality and several loads of good steady stock heifers were on sale, but the bulk of those offered were of fair to medium quality. Monday's trade was fairly active at Monday's values. Nearly everything was cleaned up before noon.

Heavy cattle, that is steers and heifers, 1200 to 1400 lbs., are slow sale between $7.75 and $8, and the looks as the farmer will have to take lower prices for this class of cattle, as buyers are slow at purchasing them after the $7.50 mark is passed; in fact, this price is hard to reach, and the cattle that bring it have to be extra choice.

Fat cows were good property to have these two days and sold rapidly at values given below.

Stockers and feeders also are good value, as prices for them are again high.
We would want the farmers against paying these high prices, just as we did last fall, as they now see that we were right at that time. Many of them acknowledge that they cannot obtain the price paid last fall after feeding the cattle thru the winter. If the farmer is not making money he is hard to deal with, and the drovers if he is not making enough to pay even expenses is also slow to trade with the wholesaler.

Thus, when cattle are bought at too high a price in the first place as a rule it causes trouble all the way thru, and such is the position today. Cattle are too high for the purchasing power of the public generally and it looks to us as the heavy cattle, unless the unexpected happens and a good export trade develops, will have to be sold at lower values. The trader runs a great risk who buys these cattle at a price that he is unable to sell them on the market for a $7.50 value.

Millers and springers sold readily at prices ranging from $5 to $6.75. Veal calves were lower in all classes of them.
Sheep and lambs were very scarce and values as high as the public are prepared to pay.

Hogs were firm at Monday's values.
