

325.2415

M

To the IRISH IN AMERICA,— who, devoted citizens of that great country which has afforded an asylum and given a home to millions of their race, cherish a fond attachment to the dear old land of their birth and their fathers, and reflect credit upon it by their virtues,—
this volume is dedicated by

THE AUTHOR.

11285