

F 9354

OF M

Mr. CALHOUN
not to advocate or o
state the reasons that its ratification. The ception, was not wh
or whether it was li whether it was such stances of the case, it or reject. Thus rega fairly the reasons in tion; and to assign
ning with the port
boundary, the settle
and prominent object

He was one of t
doubt that the bound contended was the treaty of peace in 17
corded his vote, after subject. But, altho not doubt at the time settled by a comprom
be doubtful at an ear tion of Washing, on ly, by stipulating to friendly power, by t
thus admitted on a
strengthened by the
who had been mutu
the treaty. So stron
pression that the dis
compromise or con
friend in the then
was made a few year
sent to England on t his name, among oth
that the question co
and for that purpose, section ought to be s
other Southern man
these previous impr
the negotiation ope
adjusting the difficu
on a compromise I was first announced
a considerable por
west of the line awa was incredulous, a
against it. His fir
more strongly again
fixed on the river
river, taking the St.
by the King of Ho
comprom se boundar
portion of the dispu river, and west and junction; and all the
On a little reflection
his opinion of the m rumor or imperfect i
whole subject was b