York Township councillors feel keen disappointment over the failure to secure water for Todmorden. One of them expressed the opinion that some individuals felt that there should be a Chinese wall around the city to guard against the township deriving any benefits from city utilities.

So-called stomach troubles, such as indigestion, gas, sourness, stomach-ache in probably in cases out of ten, simply evidence that excessive secretion of acid is taking place in the stomach, causing the formation of gas and acid indigestion.

Gas distends the stomach and causes that full, oppressive, burning feeling sometimes known as heartburn, while the acid irritates and inflames the delicate lining of the stomach. The trouble lies entirely in the excess development or secretion of acid.

two of the voices are of surpassing sweetness. But all the voices at time were called upon to give in intensit what they lacked in volume with the inevitable sense of strain. In the what they lacked in volume with the inevitable sense of strain. In the opening number this was particularly notable, the fortes even approaching harshness. The really impressive work was done in normal voice, chading into delightful planissimos, and rich choral harmonies. The light and shade effects were not too lavishly introduced, and in several staccato passages the technical training of the Monsignor Maestro Casamiri himself was done full justice to. The tenors seemed to excel in this respect. The Palestrina offertorio, "Bonum Bat" was sung with spirit and vigor and aroused much enthusiasm. The Viadana motet was given with exultant and jubilant feeling. The most pathetic rendering was the mournful and heart-burdened singing in the first Vittoria number. The "Si est dolor similis" was one of the perfect passages of the evening. The final motet, richly varied in expression, closed a concert which one would have regretted to miss. Monsignor Casamiri may be congratulated on his very large and appreciative audience, many of whom wondered why he omitted the National Anthem at the close.
