Hamilton, April 17.—(Special.)—There was another sudden death in the city to-night. Mrs. Tocher, wife of William Tocher, fruit dealer, 146 North James-street, died from heart disease while sitting on a chair in her husband's store. Several physicians called, among them Coroner Mackelcan, who decided an inquest was not necessary. Mrs. Tocher had several falling spells within the past few weeks, but her sudden demise is a terrible shock to her aged partner. Deceased was about 65 years of age and high respected. The deceased was known to a great many traveling people as manager for years of the old Temperance dining-room on North James-street.

During his four years term of office in Hamilton Major Monaghan made a host of friends. Mr. Breckinridge, manager of the Norton Manufacturing Company, who was a personal friend of the Major, received a letter from him a few days ago, in which he told of his trouble from heart disease, and that he was then in the military hospital near Zamboanga. A FIREMAN'S STOMACH.
It Went Wrong, But Sanitarium Health Foods Restored It to Former Condition.

If there is one person more anxious than another for whom the Sanitarium Health Foods are specially adapted, it is the dyspeptic. Being predisposed, the stomach is relieved by the use of the Sanitarium Health Foods, and there is an opportunity to effect a cure. The weight of the stomach is affected, and care depends upon the severity of the case, but if instructions are followed and the diet is carefully observed, a permanent cure is as certain as the rising and setting of the morning sun. Besides being a sure cure for ailments of the stomach, it is a most pleasant one, for Granose, which is a Caramel Cereal, is most palatable. Firmans Alexander, of the Central Fire Station, London, Ont., writes: "I was suffering from indigestion, and the fact that I was entirely cured in the following concise letter:

Gentlemen,—I am pleased to assert that I have been entirely cured of indigestion by using your Health Food. (Signed) Firmans Alexander, Central Fire Station, Granose, Granola and Caramel Cereal are for sale in Toronto, wholesale and retail, by J. F. Morrison, 276 Yonge-street.

The union will hereafter meet on the first Monday of each month.

Will This Sort of Thing Do?
It takes time and thought to write an ad., and a man can't afford to neglect customers to make his advertisement read good. An Archambault tailor, 225 Yonge-street, will have to make this do for to-day. People like to read his ads, but he is too busy just now to write them. Call and see him for best satisfaction at lowest prices.

AT OSGOODE HALL.
James E. Brethour, a deaf mute farmer from Georgian Township, sued Dora and Robert Webster and A. J. R. L. Starr to set aside a deed of certain lands. The action came on for trial yesterday before Mr. Justice Street, sitting in the Non-Jury Court at Osgoode Hall. After the plaintiff had given his evidence a settlement was reached between the parties. The plaintiff claimed that he had not received competent advice before signing the deed.

William East, the Yonge-street umbrella man, is the plaintiff in an action which is being heard by Mr. Justice Street. It is the transfer of the Hub license from Colborne-street to 280 Yonge-street and under the ground of alleged irregularity in the proceedings. The defendants are last night's commissioners, Messrs. Ross, McNeil and Iain. The Hub license was transferred last year from one Frawley to Patrick O'Connor, now proprietor of the Osgoode Hotel, corner Queen and Chestnut-streets. Mr. O'Connor got a transfer of the license from the old proprietor to new ones at the corner of Yonge and Allen-streets, and almost immediately sold out his interest to one King, the present proprietor. The case was not concluded when court rose.

A Jewish Divorce.
A peculiar religious custom took place yesterday in the Crown Attorney's office, when Judge Ouldiss and his wife were called to the altar, and the church which had joined them in matrimony was called to dissolve the union between them. The bride, who was the wife of the late Rabbi Weisberg, who recently came from Austria, to take charge of the Chesham-street Synagogue, was dressed in a white gown and a white veil, and she was read a few passages from this book, after which Ouldiss gave a benediction to hold, while he repeated sentences after the rabbi. This finished the first part of the proceedings, which were witnessed by three or four other Jews. Other rites must be gone through, which the rabbi will perform. The separation is not a Jewish divorce, and is not valid in the courts here. The case was not concluded when court rose.

Queen's Own Rifles.
The Queen's Own Rifles had a great crowd out last night to see the Queen's Own on a route march, commanded by Major Delamere. The parade started at 8:30, and the 10th regiment of the bugle band were granted a three-day discharge, but these soldiers were who had been serving in the special reserve regiments. At present the bugle band is overstrength.

Among the men who have received their discharge from the regiment are A. White of a Company, who has joined the 1st African Constabulary, and Corporal F. V. Igleston of I Company, a Paratrooper, who was wounded at Paardeberg, has been transferred to the 1st African Constabulary, and I Company, Bugler E. McCormack, of Strathcona's Horse, and Bugler H. Hoile and H. Parker of the 3rd S.S. Battalion, R.C.I.F., return to duty with the regiment.

At Home.
A very successful at home was given by the young men of Miss E. Fisher's Bible class of Queen-street, Methodist church, on Tuesday evening. Over one hundred of the parents and friends were present, and the entertainment was most instrumental music, readings and songs. After the entertainment was over the company partook of a delicious repast, provided by the class. Miss Fisher presided at the school, and all the young men who had attended her indefatigable efforts.

Miss Fisher has shown what can be accomplished by individual effort. She commenced with a class of five, which grew to 20 young men. The friends present were of the opinion that there were more teachers in the room. Fisher's young men would go astray.

After a trip to the States, the young couple will reside in St. Thomas.

Served the Scorching Night.
A youthful bicycle scorcher got a little of what he deserved at 8:30 and a little more yesterday afternoon. He was riding on Yonge-street at a dangerous rate, and as a consequence of his rash riding he fell from his machine and was run over by a motor car. The driver of the motor car was not at fault for running over the cyclist, but anyone who sees the speed at which the boy was riding had no doubt as to where the blame should rest.

A Decision Reached.
Stinson & Holway, real estate agents, some weeks ago sued S. D. Kirkwood for $325.00, on commission on a real estate sale. The case came on for trial yesterday, and the judge, Mr. Justice Street, said that the cause of action was vested in the living partner, and an amendment should have been made at the trial, introducing his name as plaintiff. As the merits of the case were not in issue, the judge's judgment in favor of T. W. Holway, for $122.00 and costs.

A Great Cooked Food.
Two young ladies in a certain city are frequently down town and a small flat, where they do light housework. The subject of meals is a frequent topic of conversation. One of the ladies has solved the problem by keeping some nice rich milk or cream, and a package of dry crisp Grape-Nuts near by.

In thirty seconds the meal is ready and it is a most fascinating meal, too, for the lady, producing a never-to-be-forgotten flavor. The sustaining power of the food is sufficient to keep one well nourished even when a small amount is used.

If You Don't, You Will

If you don't want to lose your hair, you will have to do something, that's certain. What shall it be?

Use Ayer's Hair Vigor. It gives nourishment and strength to the weakened hair-bulbs, and the hair remains tightly in place. It does other good things, too. It restores color to gray hair, keeps the scalp clean and healthy, and makes the hair grow heavy and long.

"My hair was falling out very fast and rapidly turning gray, but Dr. Ayer's Hair Vigor stopped the falling of the hair and restored it to its natural color."

ABOUT ICE-BREAKING BOATS
Truly It is Remarkable.

Young Man at Hesperia Fell 65 Feet in a Bucket and Was Not Seriously Hurt.

Hesperia, Ont., April 17.—There was a very remarkable escape from death here to-day. A young man named Hesperia was putting pipes into a well 70 feet deep, and was being drawn to the surface in a bucket, when the rope which secured the rope broke, letting Matthew down to the bottom in 225 buckets. The drop was about 65 feet, but Matthew retained consciousness, and was able to feel about himself the rope, which was in two to three hundred feet. He was very badly bruised and shaken up, but serious injuries are anticipated.

Ottawa, April 17.—(Special.)—Altho the time for receiving private bills has long expired, Mr. McCarthy was allowed, in the House to-day, to introduce bills to give the Western Assurance and British-American Assurance Company power to issue and operate ice-breaking and wrecking cameras, because similar powers have been granted to the St. Lawrence Lloyds.

Fair Wage Claims.
Mr. Sutherland, Acting Minister of Putter, said there were now eight claims on hand and undetermined, based on the fair wage clause in contracts, and laid by workmen in the oil industry of the Department. The oldest of these claims was one made in October last. The determining of the contract belongs to the Government's policy in regard to offending contractors. It is in payment of any of these claims, as follows:

"In the event of default being made in the payment of any of these claims, in respect of wages of any foreman, workman or laborer employed on the said work, and if a claim therefore is filed in the office of the Minister, and proof thereof satisfactory to the Minister is furnished, the said Minister may pay such claim out of any moneys at any time payable, by His Majesty under said contract, and the amounts so paid shall be deemed payments to the contractor."
