COUNCIL DECIDES TO LAY THE WALK

Warm Fight on Saturday Over the Park Avenue Matter—Other Business.

At a special meeting of the city council on Saturday night, which had been called for the purpose of considering the putting down of a sidewalk on the west side of Victoria Park, from Dufferin avenue to Central avenue, it was decided to back up the stand taken by the board of works and lay the walk.

Petitions quite largely signed for and against the walk were presented. Messrs. Graves, Colerick and Wright waited on the council and spoke against the walk, while Messrs. McNoe, Reid and Doe spoke in favor of it.

The former wanted the walk as at present left undisturbed, while the latter declared that the lack of a walk there made a mudhole of the street in the spring and fall.

After listening to the arguments of both sides, the council decided to put down the walk.

The Salvation Army asked permission to hold a weekly band concert in the park, and to be allowed to take up a collection at the gates. Referred to No. 1 committee, with power.

Ald. Gillen stated that he had been approached by representatives of city bands, who are anxious to hold a big tattoo for the benefit of those injured in the Crystal Hall disaster. This matter was also referred to No. 1 with power.

LIVELY BUDGET FROM PT. STANLEY

The Cameron-Honsinger Assault Case—Pere Marquette Depot Robbed.

Port Stanley, July 22.—The charge against Dr. E. W. Honsinger, and G. Armstrong, for unlawfully wounding W. K. Cameron, the well-known barrister of St. Thomas, came up before Squire John Price and County Magistrate Huns in the town hall Friday afternoon.

A large crowd of summer visitors and villagers thronged the courtroom, as the case had excited great interest in this district. After hearing five witnesses for the prosecution, the magistrates decided to reserve judgment for a week.

Mr. Cameron said that the scene of the encounter was on the sands of Orchard Beach, and about in front of his cottage. He had got permission from Mr. Ross, foreman of the park, to use a stick of timber which had landed on his beach for a raft.

On the evening of July 9, about dusk he saw two men in a rowboat coming towards the timber. He told them to leave it alone as it was his. They replied that they knew all about it, it was Frank Shepherd, Government Inspector, had told them they could have it. Mr. Cameron replied that Shepherd had nothing to do with it, and again told the two men to leave it alone.

They kept on taking the log. Witness then came down to the beach and warned them, but they paid no attention. He picked up three handfuls of sand and gravel and threw it at them. They still paid no attention. Then Dr. Honsinger came ashore and made a pass at witness.

Witness took Honsinger by the collar and backed him against the cliff and held him there, while Honsinger tried to strike him in the body. Witness swung Honsinger around toward the water and let him go. Honsinger called to Armstrong to bring him an oar, but the latter did not bring him one.

Honsinger then made another pass at witness, and the latter took him under his arm and held him there, Honsinger pounding with his fists. Armstrong then came in and pulled witness toward the water. Witness tried to struggle, but fell with Armstrong still hanging on to him. Honsinger started slugging with both fists, hitting witness four times on the left side of the head and three times on the right.

Witness then said, "Now, I think you had better get out of here." Honsinger replied, "Yes, stop, or quit it," and then got up. As witness was struggling to his feet Honsinger hit him on the temple, causing blood to flow freely, and witness thought an artery must have been severed, as witness' shirt was saturated with blood.

Chester Smith, the only eye-witness of the crime, gave the same story as Mr. Cameron. The cross-examination of the witnesses continued to the fifth, when witness continued to testify until next Friday, to be heard in St. Thomas. Crown Attorney McGrimmon appeared for the plaintiff, and Messrs. C. S. Leitch and Andrew Grant acted for the defence.

The employees of Lawson & Jones, of London, to the number of 150, took dinner at the Hotel Loney on Saturday. Each employee was given a meal ticket. They brought their own wafers, and had a good time in the dining-room from 10:30 to 12:30. Many of them were in high praise of the systematic way in which Lawson & Jones conducted their dining-room.

Two more were gathered in by the Orsins in the third. Steele made a nice two-bagger, but was out trying to make it three. Denmore reached first on error, stole second and scored on a fielder's choice. Morse walked.

The Orsins stole second and scored on a passed ball. A pass, a single and a hit by pitched ball, were responsible for two more runs for the Grays in the fourth.

Three were added to the Ivys' string in the fifth, on Munroe's two-bagger, two passes and a single by Kilgour, coupled with two errors by the Grays.

The Grays got four more of the money-getters in their half of the fifth. Calhoun biffed one for the Ivys, and Hardy's and McCall's two-baggers.

Once again did the Grays see the plate. In the eighth Clarke singled, stole second, went to third on an out, and scored on a passed ball.

The Ivys' last hit came in the ninth. Durham reached first on an error, stole second and scored on Chantler's single.

SEVEN-SIX GAME DOWN THE RIVER

The Orsins Defeat the Cubs and Grays Smother the Ivys.

In a well-fought-out and close contest the Orsins defeated the Cubs in the first game at Springbank Saturday, the score being 7 to 6. Brodison and Benenatti both pitched good games, Benenatti having slightly the best of the argument, only three hits being taken off his delivery. The game was called at the end of the sixth inning.

First—Orsins—Rockwood and Reardon singled. Rockwood scored on a passed ball. Cubs—B. Healey went to first on an error, stole second and third and scored on M. Healey's two-bagger.

Second—Orsins—F. Clarke singled, and stole second and third. Spry was hit by a pitched ball. Clarke scored on Benenatti's sacrifice. Spry scored on a fielder's choice. Cubs—Russell reached first on an error, stole second, went to third on an error and scored on a wild throw.

Third—Orsins—Rockwood first on an error; second on a bad throw, scoring on Glen's single. Cubs—Moore reached first on an error. Legg was hit by pitched ball, sending Moore to second, who scored on a wild throw. Legg, who tried to repeat the trick, was out at the plate. Brodison reached first on an error, went to second on an error, stole third and scored on a fielder's choice.

Fourth—Cubs—Marr was safe at first, stole second and scored on B. Healey's single.

Fifth—Cubs—M. Healey lined out a three-bagger, and scored in a bad throw.

Sixth—Orsins—F. Clarke, Spry and Benenatti singled, Thompson reached first on error, coupled with passed balls and stolen bases, notching three runs.

The score by innings: R. H. E. Orsins 7 1 2 1 0 0 3 — 7 8 6 Cubs 6 1 1 1 1 0 — 6 3 2

Cubs—Brodison, pitcher; Russell catcher; Marr, first base; Legg, second base; M. Healey, third base; Brodison, shortstop; Baily, right field; B. Healey, left field; Moore, center field.

The Grays still keep winning. By defeating the Ivys in the second game at Springbank they made things look as though the timeware was going to adorn Jerry McCall's trophy next winter. However, there is still a chance for the others, but it is a very slim one. The real fight will now be for second honors. Jigger Durham was back in the game for the Ivys, and something better was looked for than last time.

Most of the Grays' runs were due to errors at critical times, only six hits being credited to them. The final score stood 13 to 6.

The Ivys started out strong. Durham singled, stole second, but was napped at third trying to repeat the trick. Kilgour reached first on an error. McKenna singled, but shared the same fate as Chantler, being caught at second. Boyce singled, scoring Kilgour. Calhoun biffed one for three sacks, scoring Boyce.

The Grays doubled the score in the second. Three men were passed, three errors and two bad throws were added, letting in four runs.

Two more were gathered in by the Orsins in the third. Steele made a nice two-bagger, but was out trying to make it three. Denmore reached first on error, stole second and scored on a fielder's choice. Morse walked.

The Orsins stole second and scored on a passed ball. A pass, a single and a hit by pitched ball, were responsible for two more runs for the Grays in the fourth.
