ROYALTY STONED BY MOBS

Queen of Portugal, Autoing, Is Struck —Crown Prince of Roumania Too.

Lisbon, July 21.—While Queen Maria and her second son, Prince Manuei, were automobiling recently they were stoned by hoodlums. Her majesty was struck on the arm. She stopped the car, meaning to question her attackers, who thereupon bolted.

Bucharest, July 19.—While the Crown Prince Ferdinand of Roumania was motoring in a district affected by agrarian unrest he was stoned and hurt by a peasant in a street of a small town. The prince stopped the car, alighted and chased and captured the man, whom he handed over to the police. The Roumanian Government has sent troops to the district.

WORLD'S NAVIES LINED UP

British Reports Put U. S. and France on Equal Footing.

London, July 21.—A parliamentary return has just been issued, showing the comparative strength of the great powers in completed first-class battleships, less than 25 years old, and armored cruisers less than 20 years old, on June 1.

Great Britain has 57 battleships, of which 4 are considered obsolete; France, the United States 18 battleships, of which 4 are considered obsolete; France, 20, with 6 obsolete; Germany, 20, with 9 obsolete, and Japan 11, with 2 obsolete.

Of cruisers Great Britain has 32, the United States 12, France 18, Germany 6, and Japan 10.

RUN DOWN BY TRAIN

Recent Arrival from Liverpool Killed at Ingersoll.

Ingersoll, July 21.—Struck by a through freight train, eastbound, at the Thames street crossing of the Grand Trunk Railway about 9 o'clock last night, Wm. McIntyre, died at the Sanatorium a few hours later.

The unfortunate man sailed from Liverpool a couple of weeks ago, and he had only been in Ingersoll since Tuesday.

As far as can be learned he had no friends here.

It is supposed that he did not notice the approaching of the train and that he walked in front of it.

CHARGED PRIEST WITH LIBEL.

Ottawa, July 20.—Dr. Ludovic Gellier and Amaneda Gellier, of this city, have taken out a writ against Rev. Father Routhier, for alleged libel. It is said that Rev. Father Routhier refused to marry the couple, who were later married by a Protestant clergyman. Since then the priest has written relatives, it is claimed, reflecting on the morality of Mr. and Mrs. Gellier, and claiming that the wedding is null and void.

SEVEN-SIX GAME DOWN THE RIVER

The Oriens Defeat the Cubs and Grays Smother the Iveys.

In a well-fought-out and close contest the Oriens defeated the Cubs in the first game at Springbank Saturday, the score being 7 to 6. Brodison and Benenatti both pitched good games, Benenatti having slightly the best of the argument, only three hits being taken off his delivery. The game was called at the end of the sixth inning. The summary:

First.—Oriens—Rockwood and Reardon singled. Rockwood scored on a passed ball. Cubs—B. Healey went to first on an error, stole second and third and scored on M. Healey's two-bagger.

Second.—Oriens—F. Clarke singled, and stole second and third. Spry was hit by a pitched ball. Clarke scored on Benenatti's sacrifice. Spry scored on a fielder's choice. Cubs—Russell reached first on an error, stole second, went to third on an error and scored on a wild throw.

Third.—Oriens—Rockwood first on an error; second on a bad throw, scoring on Glen's single. Cubs—Moore reached first on an error. Legg was hit by pitched ball, sending Moore to second, who scored on a wild throw. Legg, who tried to repeat the trick, was out at the plate. Brodison reached first on an error, went to second on error, stole third and scored on a fielder's choice.

Fourth.—Cubs—Marr was safe at first, stole second and scored on B Healey's single.

Fifth.—Cubs—M. Healey lined out a three-bagger, and scored in a bad throw.

Sixth.—Oriens—F. Clarke, Spry and Benenatti singled, Thompson reached first on error, coupled with passed balls and stolen bases, notching three runs.

The score by innings: R. H. E.

Oriens	..	..	..	1	2	1	0	0	3	7	8	6
Cubs	..	..	..	1	1	2	1	1	0	6	3	2

The teams lined up as follows:

Oriens — Benenatti, pitcher; F. Clarke, catcher; Glen, first base; Spry, second base; Reardon, third base; G. Clarke, shortstop; Thompson, right field; Niosi, left field; Rockwood, center field.

Cubs—Brodison, pitcher; Russell catcher; Marr, first base; Legg, second base; M. Healey, third base; Heathfield, shortstop; Balyl, right field; B. Healey, left field; Moore, center field.

The Second Game.

The Grays still keep winning. By defeating the Ivys in the second game at Springbank they made things look as though the tinware was going to adorn Jerry McColl's tepee next winter. However, there is still a chance for the others, but it is a very slim one. The real fight will now be for second honors. Jigger Durham was back in the game for the Ivys, and something better was looked for than was dished up. Most of the Grays' runs were due to errors at critical times, only six hits being credited to them. The final score stood 13 to 6.

The Ivys started out strong. Durham singled, stole second, but was nailed at third trying to repeat the trick. Kilgour reached first on an error. McKenna singled, but shared the same fate as Chantler, being caught at second. Boyce singled, scoring Kilgour. Calhoun biffed one for three sacks, scoring Boyce.

The Grays doubled the score in the second. Three men were passed, three errors and two bad throws were added, letting in four runs.

Two more were gathered in by the Oriens in the third. Steele made a nice two-bagger, but was out trying to make it three. Densmore reached first on error, stole second and scored on a fielder's choice. Morse walked, stole second and scored on a passed ball.

A pass, a single and a hit by pitched ball, were responsible for two more runs for the Grays in the fourth.

Three were added to the Ivys' string in the fifth, on Munroe's two-bagger, two passes and a single by Kilgour, coupled with two errors by the Grays.

The Grays got four more of the money-getters in their half of the fifth, on errors and passed balls by the Ivys, and Hardy's and McColl's two-baggers.

Once again did the Grays see the plate. In the eighth Clarke singled, stole second, went to third on an out, and scored on a passed ball.

The Ivys' last talley came in the ninth. Durham reached first an error, stole second and scored on Chantler's single.

The score by innings: R. H. E.

LIVELY BUDGET FROM PT. STANLEY

The Cameron-Honsinger Assault Case—Pere Marquette Depot Robbed.

Port Stanley, July 22.—The charge against Dr. E. W. Honsinger, and G. Armstrong, for unlawfully wounding W. K. Cameron, the well-known barrister, of St. Thomas, came up before Squire John Price and County Magistrate Hunt in the town hall Friday afternoon. A large crowd of summer visitors and villagers thronged the courtroom, as the case had excited great interest in this district. After hearing five witnesses for the prosecution, the magistrates decided to reserve judgment for a week. Mr. Cameron's story of the assault was the only one heard, although evidence was also put in to show that he had been wounded, and that the log, over which the row occurred, was his property.

Mr. Cameron said that the scene of the encounter was on the sands of Orchard Beach, and about in front of his cottage. He had got permission from Mr. Ross, foreman of the breakwater, to use a stick of timber, which had landed on his beach for a raft. On the evening of July 9, about dusk he saw two men in a rowboat coming towards the timber. He told them to leave it alone as it was his. They replied that they knew all about it, as Frank Shepherd, Government inspector, had told them they could have it Mr. Cameron replied that Shepperd had nothing to do with it, and again told the two men to leave it alone. They kept on taking the log. Witness then came down to the beach and warned them, but they paid no attention. He picked up three handfuls of sand and gravel and threw it at them. They still paid no attention. Then Dr. Honsinger came ashore and made a pass at witness. Witness took Honsinger by the collar and backed him against the cliff and held him there, while Honsinger tried to strike him in the body. Witness swung Honsinger around toward the water and let him go. Honsinger called to Armstrong to bring him an oar, but the latter did not bring him one. Honsinger then made another pass at witness, and the latter took him under his arm and held him there, Honsinger pounding with his fists. Armstrong then came in and pulled witness back into the water. Witness tried to struggle up, but fell, with Armstrong still hanging on to him. Honsinger started slugging with both fists, hitting witness four times on the left side of the head and three times on the right. Witness then said, "Now, I think you have done enough." Armstrong replied, "Yes, stop, or quit it," and then let go of witness. As witness was struggling to his feet Honsinger hit him on the temple, causing blood to flow freely, and witness thought an artery must have been severed, as witness' shirt was saturated with blood. Chester Smith, the only eye-witness of the scrap, told the same story as Mr. Cameron. The cross-examination of witnesses continued to a late hour, when the case was adjourned until next Friday, to be heard in St. Thomas. Crown Attorney McCrimmon appeared for the plaintiff, and Messrs. C. St. Leitch and Andrew Grant acted for the defendants.

The employes of Lawson & Jones, of London, to the number of 150, took dinner at the Hotel Loney on Saturday. Each employe was presented with a meal ticket. They brought their own waiters, and had control of the spacious dining-room from 10:30 to 12 a.m. Matt Loney can't say too much in praise of the systematic way in which Lawson & Jones conducted their annual picnic. Everyone was well pleased with the excellent meal provided by Matt Loney.

Mrs. E. T. Smith and daughter, Mrs. O. D. Fournier, of New Orchard Beach, are spending a few days with relatives in Morpeth.

Hill Crest seems to be doomed. On Friday night another large portion of its clay was deposited in Lake Erie.

A few of the many guests at the Hotel Loney are: Rex Sharpe, Windsor; Dr. Honsinger, D. Fulton, T. C. Trizer, Dorris Robins, Miss R. A. Robins, Mrs. S. M. Lipsey, Cecil A. Lipsey, Mrs. Charles Duncombe, William Wegg, E. A. Copeman, Adam Walker, Helen A. Strong, G. Lindsay, all of St. Thomas; Mary and Julia Graham, C. Summers, Jack McKellar, C. Tucker, W. Bedggood, F. J. Huddleston and J. D. Omond, London; Robert Lucas, Stratford; Mrs. (Dr.) Bradley, Canton, Ill.; T. McGregor, Rodney; J. C. Dewin and wife, New Burt, N. D.; H. A. W. Orman, Stratford, and W. A. Brown and T. McNewan, of Belmont.

Wm. Jewllen, who had his arm crushed on the dredge two weeks ago, has left the hospital and returned to his home.

Miss Kathleen Smith, youngest daughter of E. A. Smith, of Sparta, who has been confined to the house with tonsilitis for some time, is able to be around again.

Miss F. Hanson, of Erie Rest, has returned from London, where she was spending a few days.

The dance at Hill Crest on Saturday night was the best held so far this season. About 125 of the youth and beauty of London and St. Thomas waltzed to the strains of Linke's first-class orchestra.

Mr. Alfred Tyler and Mr. Croden, of New Orchard Beach, are installing a waterworks system for their cottages, similar to the one installed in front of Mr. W. R. Cameron's cottage.

The peanut men are laying in a large supply of good things for the Scotch picnic on Thursday next.

The Pere Marquette depot here was entered on Friday evening and the till relieved of a little over $14. The work has the appearance of having been done by someone familiar with the geography of the interior of the station. This is the second robbery of the depot committed within the last year.

KILLED HIS WIFE

Sunderland, July 21. — Adam Lodwick, of Valentyne's Corners, killed his wife at an early hour Saturday morning.

Lodwick has been in a low state of health during the last few months. While his wife was in bed with a four-weeks-old infant in her arms, he procured a shotgun and placed the muzzle close to his wife's face and literally blew off the top of her head. The baby was not injured.

Lodwick was found in an unconscious condition. Dr. Blanchard was sent for and after a few hours Lodwick recovered.

The deceased lady was a daughter of Philip St. John, a highly respected farmer of Valentyne, and leaves a family of five to mourn her terrible death.

COUNCIL DECIDES TO LAY THE WALK

Warm Fight on Saturday Over the Park Avenue Matter —Other Business.

At a special meeting of the city council on Saturday night, which had been called for the purpose of considering the putting down of a sidewalk on the west side of Victoria Park, from Dufferin avenue to Central avenue, it was decided to back up the stand taken by the board of works and lay the walk.

Petitions quite largely signed for and against the walk were presented.

Messrs. Graves, Colerick and Wright waited on the council and spoke against the walk, while Messrs. McNee, Reid and Doe spoke in favor of it.

The former wanted the walk as at present left undisturbed, while the latter declared that the lack of a walk there made a mudhole of the street in the spring and fall.

After listening to the arguments of both sides, the council decided to put down the walk.

The Salvation Army asked permission to hold a weekly band concert in the park, and to be allowed to take up a collection at the gates. Referred to No. 1 committee, with power.

Ald. Gillean stated that he had been approached by representatives of city bands, who are anxious to hold a big tattoo for the benefit of those injured in the Crystal Hall disaster. This matter was also referred to No. 1, with power.

LINDSAY RUMORS HIT INNOCENT

Slander Suits Follow Coupling of Names With the Counterfeiters.

Lindsay, July 21.—The seven men now under arrest on the charge of issuing or making bogus money will all be up before the magistrate tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. It is hardly likely, however, that the preliminary trial will be gone on with then, as the chances are that neither the crown nor the defense will be ready for this.

Mr. Bayley, of the Attorney-General's department, will be here to conduct the trial for the crown, with the assistance of the county crown attorney.

Mr. Thomas Stewart has been retained by Charles Burke; Mr. R. J. McLaughlin, K.C., by Logie; Mr. L. V. O'Connor by Boyeau; Mr. I. E. Weldon by Gaslin, and Mr. G. H. Hopkins by George Millar.

It is now supposed that the police know all they are after, and it is generally thought that no further arrests are contemplated. Rumor, however, is as busy and as evil as ever, and the result is the injury of apparently innocent people. To the most of these rumors there seems to be no foundation. As a sample of these things may be cited one slander suit arising from such ill-natured rumors. And there are others—one, at the least, expected this week.

Among the rumors that were flying here this week is one to the effect that the accused men were receiving a certain amount of "sweating" for the purpose of securing confessions for evidence from them. The chief of police here has denied the truth of this. Chief Vincent says that nothing approaching to "sweating" would be tolerated at the jail. The prisoners do not have to talk to the detectives unless they wish to, and no pressure has been put on the accused in any way. Chief Vincent further states that both he and Special Constable Thornbury were present when the detectives interviewed the accused men at the jail. They were properly warned, as is usual, and then simply asked if they would like to say anything, or if they desired to talk to any of the other prisoners who were alleged to have made incriminating confessions.

Separate and distinct informations have been prepared against each of the men, charging them with having counterfeit money in their possession. The maximum sentence for having bad bank bills is the same as for the actual making of the notes, fourteen years in Kingston Penitentiary.

BAD TORONTO FIRE

Gasoline Explosion Causes Destruction of Four Buildings.

Toronto, July 20.—A gasoline tank, in connection with an engine used in the clothes cleaning and dyeing works and machine shop of Hugh J. Harron, 876 Bathurst street, exploded at 8:50 o'clock this morning, and a fire was started which raged until nearly 12 o'clock.

The buildings wiped out on Bathurst street by the conflagration are: No. 866, stable of Mr. McGee; No. 868, a shop of Joseph Jordan, shoemaker; No. 870, shed of James Lowrey; No. 874, store of Walter Rice, hardware dealer; No. 876, H. J. Harron, dyer; No. 878, Richard Cadlicott.

The damage is estimated at about $4,000, as follows: Hugh J. Harron, $1,800; W. Rice, $1,000; Richard Cadlicott, $870; Joseph Jordan, $200; Wm. McGee, $100.

A horse and buggy belonging to Mr. Cadlicott was destroyed in the flames. The buildings burned were all frame structures, and the firemen had a hard fight in saving the surrounding property. The fire spread with great rapidity.

HAWLEY STINGS IN HIS ADDRESS

Prosecution Lawyer in Haywood Case Makes Telling Speech.

Boise, Idaho, July 20.—James Hawley, leading counsel for the State of Idaho, presenting the first argument to the jury in the case against Wm. D. Haywood, charged with the murder of Former Governor Steunenberg, spoke for nearly eight hours, distributed over three sessions of court. Even when the session today had extended beyond the customary limit, every seat in the court room was occupied and remained so till the last word was spoken. None listened more attentively to the argument than Haywood.

From time to time he took copious notes in a small book and frequently made suggestions to one or the other of his lawyers, seven of whom were in court today. Throughout the day Mr. Hawley assumed an almost conversational tone. The analysis of testimony in contradiction of Orchard's story concluded frequently with the denunciation of witness after witness as a willful perjurer or intentional falsifier.

When he had spoken nearly six hours, Mr. Hawley reached Caldwell, where in December, 1905, the preparations for the assassination of Steunenberg with a bomb were afoot. His voice now found a sympathetic note, and as he told of the last moments of the former governor, the crowd leaned forward to catch the speaker's every word. Mr. Hawley's peroration was impressive. There was no attempt at oratory, but only a strong note of deep sincerity and great earnestness when he pleaded for an honest judgment.

Mr. Hawley did not charge that a majority, or even that many of the members of the Western Federation of Miners, were criminals, but that the evil deeds of the officers and of the scum of the organization has brought discredit on the rank and file. The time had come when decent men should rise and make war on the evil influences that were the curse of all labor organizations.

On the adjournment of court until Monday morning, Mr. Hawley was showered with congratulations.

AWFUL DEED OF CRAZED FARMER

Kills Son, Wife and Latter's Foster Father, and Is Killed by Neighbor.

Nuncie, Mich., July 21.—Henry Scutcheon, a farmer about 50 years of age, living near this village, ran amuck with an axe today, killing his invalid son, his wife and her foster-father.

Scutcheon was afterwards shot by Henry McClellan, a neighbor, whom the crazed murderer also attacked.

The dead: Henry Scutcheon, Polly Scutcheon, his wife; X. X. Scutcheon, their 18-year-old son; George Anning, Mrs. Scutcheon's foster-father.

The Scutcheon farmhouse had apparently always been a happy home. Today, without warning, Scutcheon murderously attacked his son with an axe. He crushed the boy's head frightfully. When his wife interfered he turned on her and pursued the screaming woman from their house to the road, where he knocked her down with the implement. He then rushed back to the house and murdered Anning.

Next he tried to destroy himself. He gashed his throat and wrists with a razor and took paris green. His wound did not weaken him and the poison did not take immediate effect.

Mrs. Scutcheon was carried into the house of Henry McClellan near by and McClellan rushed to another neighbor's for help.

When Scutcheon found that his wife was in the McClellan home alive, he smashed in a window with the axe, jumped through it and again attacked her. This time he crushed her skull. He left the McClellan home, but when McClellan returned from his search for help, the crazed man started toward him.

"I will shoot if you come across the road," warned McClellan, who had armed himself with a shotgun.

Despite the warning Scutcheon came across with murder in his glance. Thereupon McClellan shot him dead.

LORD BARRINGTON DIES THURSDAY

Notorious Criminal Is To Be Executed at St. Louis for Murder.

St. Louis, July 21.—The career of one of the most remarkable criminals of recent years will end here on Thursday, when Frederick Seymour Barrington goes to death on the gallaws. Barrington is an Englishman, a son of a coachman, but he always posed as a man of noble birth. As a child he was sent to prison for five years for arson, and since then he has served terms in Germany, France, Spain, India and the United States.

The crimes charged against him have ranged from petty larceny to murder. Barrington first made his appearance in America in 1888, when he was about 30 years of age. He masqueraded as Lieutenant-General Lord Barrington, of England, and married Celestine E. Miller, the daughter of a wealthy Brooklyn family. After squandering her fortune he left her and her mother penniless in London Soon afterwards he married a wealthy Canadian girl, whom he deserted after he had spent her money.

In 1892 he married a Philadelphia heiress, whom he deserted in Cincinnati, after she had settled a large part of her fortune on him.

Nothing more was read of Barrington until he appeared in St. Louis. In June, 1903, he was arrested charged with the murder of James P. McCann, a St. Louis horseman, who had befriended him. He was convicted, but fought the case at every turn. In the end the sentence was affirmed by the United States supreme court.

KITSON FOR TORONTO

Former American League Star Will Pitch for Maple Leafs.

Toronto, July 20. — President McCaffrey, of the Toronto Ball Club, today announced that he has signed Pitcher Kitson, of the New York Club, and he will join the club at once.

Just at the moment the Leafs are in miserable luck with their pitching staff, nearly every member of which is crippled in some manner or other.

Larry Hesterfer has been taken ill, so ill in fact that he has been hurriedly sent to his home in Newark, while Applegate is still incapacitated from his sore leg.

To add to the club's other troubles, the Washington Club, which has been the Toronto stumbling block in several important deals, have interfered with the Oberlin transfer, refusing absolutely to waive on the player just as they refused to waive on Grimshaw some weeks ago.
