BORDEN WILL DEVOTE ALL NEXT WEEK IN

Addresses 3,000 Electors in Stratford.

RAKE-OFF DAY ENDED?

STRATFORD, Nov. 23.—Sir Robert Borden will be busy speaking at Ontario points all next week. In addition to the meetings already announced for Monday afternoon and evening at Uxbridge and Oshawa, he will address a Windsor audience on Tuesday evening with an afternoon meeting yet to be arranged. On Wednesday he will be in Simcoe in the afternoon, and Dunnville in the evening. The only other date decided on yet is at Peterboro Friday evening.

Some three thousand electors for North Perth heard Sir Robert Borden and Hon. N. W. Rowell in the rink this evening. Both received great ovations, Mr. Rowell drew applause when he declared. "The condition of Canada today is the excuse and the justification of a national government."

done overseas were classed as manual laborers.

When the new Government was re-turned to power there would be ade-quate taxation of war profits and in-come tax, he promised.

The steps taken to control food profits, he declared, were more radical than any piece of legislation yet en-acted in the United States or England. There had been aboilition of the patronage system in appointments to office and in the purchase of supplies. Members of the war purchasing com-mission were given their services to the nation gratis.

"What about Hanna?" queried a the nation gratis.

"What about Hanna?" queried a man in the hall, amid cries of "Put him out."

"Mr. Hanna is giving his services without one cent of reward," answered Mr. Rowell. (Applause.)

Rake-off Day Ended?

"The day of 'rake-off' is ended," he continued. "That means the saving of millions of dollars to the people of Canada."

"With rotten rifles and amount."

The chair was occupied by a Liberal, W. A. Preston, the ushers being returned soldiers.

H. B. Morphy, of Listowel, Unionist candidate, was well received by the audience. He confined himself to speaking a few words on behalf of the Victory loan.

Lieut.-Col. Young read a resolution of the Great War Veterans' Association pledging them to support the Union Government.

Labor Has Do.ie Bit.
