OFFICIAL WORD OF

HUSBAND'S DEATH

Steadfastly refusing to believe her husband dead, although word received on July 23 told of the death of Conroy P. Graham, Mrs. Charles Graham, 234 Wellington street, on Wednesday received absolute confirmation of his death, when she received an official report stating that Driver Charles Philip Graham had been killed in action on July 15 on July 15.

The first message received by her The first message received by her was intended to convey the news that her husband had been killed in action, but owing to the mistake in the name she clung to the hope that it might still not be he. The later message, however, only confirmed the sad news brought by the first report.

ber, 1915, and was a driver in the transport section of a famous Western Ontario battalion at the front. He is vived, in addition to his wife, by a ar-old baby girl. He was a painter trade, and before coming to London sided in Walkerton.
