WAR APPEARS INEVITABLE.

Copenhagen, June 18.—The amended peace terms have aroused a sentiment of growing implacability in Germany, and armed intervention by the Allies is regarded as inevitable, according to the Berlin correspondent of the Politiken. It is reported that Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, the head of the peace delegation, and in the House of Commons this morning Mathias Erzberger, chairman of the armistice commission, have presented the naturalization bill. The reconciled their differences. The correspondent says that if the report is true the reconciliation will have an important bearing and to incorporate therewith the pro-

Paris, June 18.—The demonstration gainst members of the German peace elegation on Monday evening accordgainst members of the German peace delegation on Monday evening, according to the Petit Parisien apparently had its inception in the crowd's interpretation of some gesture by a German typist or secretary as a provocative act. The throwing of stones and bricks, which struck two Germans occurred as the automobiles of the Germans passed hrough Chesnay, Roquencourt and Bailly, suburban points, on their way to the railway station at Noisy Le Roi. At Ver railway station at Noisy Le Rol. At versailles the demonstration was confined to hooting and jeering. Two French military chauffeurs, struck by bricks, were more seriously injured than were

Mr. McKenzie, leader of the Opposition, remarked that, in view of the importance of the measure, he feared it had been introduced at to leared it had been introduced at too late a date in the session. Possibly it might stand over for another session. Sir Robert Borden replied that the purpose of the bill was to make Canadian naturalization uniform with that of the United Kingdom. The provisions were framed with that purpose, and did not depart in any important respect of the framed with that purpose, and did not depart in any important respect of the provisions of the Imperial act of last year. It was extremely important that the proposals should be carried into effect at the earliest date.

Enemy Ministers At Same Time Realize the Possibility of Bolshevism and Chaos in Germany If the Terms Are Not pected of taking part in a seditious AVIATORS ENGAGED TO SEARCH FOR Signed—Frankfort Gazette Declares Germans Are in No Position To Refuse and Must Bow To the Inevitable.

Weimar, June 18 .- No statement has been issued by the German cabinet on the Allied reply to the German counter-proposals, but the Associated Press learns that sentiment in the cabinet is almost unanimously against signing the treaty, the only objection being the possibility of Bolshevism and chaos in Germany. Commenting on the Allied reply to the German counter-proposals to the terms of peace, the Frankfort Gazette says: "Whatever we do will be terrible, Germany is in no refuse to sign the treaty when the signature is forced by an ultimatum. Let us resign ourselves to the inevitable and hope for a better future." In concluding a violent denunciation of the treatment given Germany by the Allies the Vorwaerts says: "If the Entente's covering note scribes the war as the greatest crime against humanity, it is certain there is yet another and greater crime against humanity.
