Increased activity at Pine Lawn,

The children's department of the public library is preparing a small collection of books which will be sent to the Preventorium for the use of the children who are there under treatment. The attention of the library was drawn to the fact that the library was ment. The attention of the library was drawn to the fact that the children there, who range in age from 7 to 15, were without a supply of attractive reading, and arrangements were at once made to have this provided. The books will be provided by the library and will remain permanently at the Preventorium, being looked after there by the teacher or others in charge.

The library has also provided a large quantity of reading matter for the soldiers who are under treatment at Westminster Hospital. Quite a large number of attractive books were received from citizens, and these were turned over to the hospital. The library can make use of more books of a live, attractive type, and would appreciate the co-operation of citizens in providing for the needs of the men under treatment.

LEWIS—DEWEY.

At Old Orchard Heights, the summer home of the bride's parents, Rev. G. W. Dewey of London, a quiet wedding took place on Wednesday at high noon, when their daughter, Anne Irene, and Frederick M. Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert G. Lewis of New York were married.

Rev. George W. Dewey, father of the bride, officiated. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. Arthur W. Dewey of Toronto, looked charming in a gown of white georgette over turned over to the hospital. FAREWELL SERVICES

Impressive farewell ceremonies were given Brigadier and Mrs. Morris at the Salvation Army Citadel last evening. Brigadier Morris was at one time divisional commander here, and later sent to Toronto, where he acted as assistant field secretary for Ontario. He is going west to take up the duties of chief field secretary.

Col. McMillan opened the services with a parting address to Brigadier commission, the fee system in vogue throughout the counties is the root of many evils, and in all probabilities will be abolished. Col. McMillan opened the services with a parting address to Brigadier Morris. Short addresses followed by Adjutant Halpenny, matron of the Ronald Gray Children's Home: Staff Capt. Ritchie, Mrs. Col. Rawling and Sergt. Major Andrews, who spoke on behalf of the local corps and friends. Col. J. Rawling spoke on the work of Brigadier Morris, both in the city and while he was in Toronto.

Brigadier and Mrs. Morris replied, saying that they were sorry they were leaving Ontario, especially London.

DENY BLOCKING TOWN PLANNING

Aldermen Are Not Perturbed Over Allegations of John Cottam.

John Cottam's charge that aldermentare trying to hamper the work of the town planning committee, of which he is a member, has not stirred the city fathers to any extent, but several of them declare that there is not the slightest intention on their part or on that of the council as a body to restrict the work of the new committee. They assert, however, that some of the work which Mr. Cottam wishes to take up is already capably administered by No. 2 committee of the city council, and the city engineering department.

Ald. G. B. Drake said there was no intention on the part of the council to interfere with the town planning. "As a member of the board of works, I do not see why the city work should be complicated any further by referring our business to the town planning committee," he said. "There is red tape enough now without creating any more. We certainly need sewer systems and that sort of thing, and it is all right for the town planners to recommend them, but when it comes to the actual details I think that is up to the board of works and the city engineering de-

The men should be well paid, so that the best could be secured. They should be trained in first aid and to give help to any travelers in difficulty, such as motorists dumped in the ditch.

The whole idea of such a force would be to keep men out of trouble instead of forcing them into it, such as a tendency to do. At the present time the county constable will not investigate trouble or any case unless he is sure of an arrest, and thereby a fee, according to Mr. Pocock, Through the present system the farmers are not getting service or proper protection, and so the whole system must be reorganized to accomplish it.

Mr. Pocock believes that such a system would save money for the comportant stage.

Announcement To Women---

YOU are invited to the demonstrations of the famous WHITE ROTARY ELECTRIC SEWING MACHINES at the Hydro Shop all this week. A special corps of experts will show you the many outstanding qualities of this machine, which has no peer on the market today.

You will be charmed when you see how simple and laborless is sewing by wire. The White Rotary is made in Canada for Canadian women, and it will last a lifetime. The price for this week is only $68, which is $30 cheaper than you can buy it anywhere else.

Come and see sewing done in the twentieth century way. If you prefer, you can arrange for a demonstration in your own home by telephoning 7000. And if you are not prepared to pay for the machine now you can have convenient terms arranged by the payment of $8 down.

Yours respectfully.
