CONSPIRACY CHARGE AGAINST GROCERS

Prosecution Opens Fire on Dominion Grocers' Guild—Adjourned for a Month.

The case against the Grocers' Guild for alleged conspiracy to keep up prices by an illegal combination opened before Chief Justice Falconbridge yesterday morning. G. T. Blackstock and S. F. Washington, K.C., represented the crown. The defendants were represented by E. F. B. Johnston, K.C.; E. H. Ambrose and Eric Armour.

The defendants are: H. C. Beckett, G. L. Bristol, John I. Davidson, T. B. Escott, W. G. Crate, J. F. Ely, T. Kinross and the Dominion Wholesale Grocers' Guild.

S. Cook, secretary of the guild, deposed that in 1904-05 Col. Davidson was president of the guild, and Mr. Beckett, vice-president for Ontario. There were vice-presidents for each of the other provinces. Nearly all the wholesale grocers in Canada are members.

The constitution of the guild was produced. A document was read from which a resolution called upon the Empire Tobacco Company to sell only to the wholesale trade.

Another resolution proposed to shut out grocers from benefiting from the guild who failed to share in its cost. A provision was that rebates were not to be given firms which bought exclusively from the guild members.

INTERNATIONAL FISHERIES.

37th Annual Meeting of American Fisheries Society Opens To-Day.

The thirty-seventh annual meeting of the American Fisheries Society opens in Washington to-day. No better place for a convention of this kind could have been selected. Washington is the home of the United States bureau of fish, which tends the world in the study, cultivation and propagation of fish. The Washington bureau has become a model for all similar institutions.

All persons interested in fisheries, fish culture and fisheries administration, or any scientific investigations and experiments, are invited to attend the meetings and to take part in the discussions. The program is not only instructive, but one that should prove highly entertaining as well.

The following are some of the most interesting papers that will be presented before the congress: "The Value of Carp as Furnishing Food for Black Bass," by S. P. Bartlett, Quincy, Ill.; "Lobster Culture," by Prof. A. D. Mead, Smith, present; "The Modern Hatchling House," by Samuel F. Fullerton, St. Paul, Minn.; "Some Reasons for Failure of Fish Protective Legislation, and Some Suggestive Remedies," by O. M. Dennis, Baltimore, Md.; "A Method of Fighting the Enemies of the Fish Culturists by Adopting Their Own Weapons," and Some Hints from Experiences in Canada of Effecting a Practical Means in the Direction of Better Fisheries Protection," by A. Kelly Evans, Toronto.

The international fisheries congress was organized in 1900. The congress, which commences to-day in Washington, will be the fourth since that date, and will be presided over by Hugh M. Smith, present president of the American Fisheries Society, who has been connected with the bureau of fisheries since 1886, and for the past four years has been its editor.

A prominent figure at the fisheries congress will be Theodore N. Gill, one of the oldest and most noted zoologists in the scientific world of to-day. Mr. Gill has offered a prize of $100 in gold for the best method of observing the habits and recording the life history of fishes, with an illustrative example, to be awarded while the present congress is in session.

The social program is quite as lengthy and important as the official one, and the delegates are ensured abundant diversion in almost every direction. A formal reception will be held at the department of state by Secretary Root, and the president will receive the members of the congress. Numerous dinners and luncheons have been arranged for, and there will be excursions to nearby places of interest.

COUNCIL RELIEVE POLICE OF SANITARY WORK

Inspector Moore is Appointed Part-Time—Chapter of Accidents—York County News.

WEST TORONTO, Sept. 21.—James Walker, a carpenter employed at the Gurney Foundry Company, was seriously hurt while at work this afternoon, by the bursting of a tank. Mr. Walker was unable to get to a place of safety before being struck by a wooden splinter which penetrated his thigh and lodged there. Dr. McNamara was called, and had the injured man removed to Grace Hospital.

The Conservatives of Ward 2 are holding a meeting at J. R. Bull's carriage shop, corner Weston-road and St. Clair-avenue, on Thursday evening, for the purpose of electing delegates to the South York convention, which will be held on Saturday afternoon in the Labor Temple, Church-street.

The meeting called by Mr. T. Thompson of the Conservatives of Ward 3, on Wednesday night, has been postponed till Thursday night, as many of the expected attendants are anxious to be at the Borden meeting at the Massey Hall on Wednesday evening.

The council to-night absolutely refused to grant any remuneration to Enoch Ward for his services as sanitary inspector during June and July. The board of health sent in a recommendation for the payment to Mr. Ward of $33.34. This was turned down, and so was a recommendation of Mayor Baird's to pay him a lump sum of $50, and a recommendation of Ald. Armstrong's to pay Mr. Ward one month's salary.

Ald. Armstrong asked what steps had been taken to compel the Toronto Railway Company to repair the car tracks between Keele-street and Ham-berside-avenue. Mayor Baird stated that the Ontario Railway Board at the present time had the matter under consideration.

Commissioner Moon was appointed sanitary inspector pro tem. Mayor Baird said in summing up the matter: "West Toronto has five policemen and 1600 acres of territory. The population is increasing rapidly and for the past six or seven weeks there has been a strike here so that the police have extra duties to perform. If West Toronto were a part of Toronto, there would be fifteen policemen here instead of five. It is not unreasonable to relieve the force from doing sanitary inspection."

LAMBTON MILLS.

A cutting box which was being operated on the farm of Mr. Luggett, near Islington, blew up seriously in the hands of a young Englishman employed there, one of the flying pieces striking him on the head, inflicting a severe scalp wound on the forehead, which was found 300 yards away.
