OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

FASHION FANCIES

All parasols have long handles. It is undoubtedly a year of silks. Clinging gowns are still the rage. Velvet and tulle are in great demand. Many gumples are being made without collars. Foulards and pongees are the favorite fabrics. Taffeta silk is the ruling favorite in sunshades. Satin, violets, in all shades, will figure on new hats. There is no end of border effects among the new cottons. Bodices are longer in front, but as high as ever at the back. Many of the richest of the evening gowns are trimmed with fur. A stunning new linen three-piece suit is of bold de rose tone. Lilacs, wisteria and roses promise to be favorite hat flowers.

Public Amusements

An attraction of unusual interest comes to the Royal Alexandra Theatre next week, when Mrs. Fiske will appear in "Salvation Nell," a powerful play dealing with life in the slums of New York. Mrs. Fiske has just completed a long engagement in Chicago following her successful season in New York and her Toronto appearance will be her only visit to the Dominion. The play has become the talk of the State because of its gripping story, daring realism, consummate acting, and unique stage effects. Of all the parts made to wide an appeal as Nell Sanderson, arduous in a saloon frequented by criminal types.

The second act of "The Witching Hour," which will be presented at the Princess Theatre next week, was written fourteen years ago by N. Palmer and G. P. O'Brien. Thomas to write a playlet for Agnes Booth and J. H. Stoddart, Mr. Thomas submitted what is now the second act of his most successful play, or at least the major portion of it with the poem by Bret Steffen as its central idea. The sale of "The Witching Hour" starts tomorrow (Thursday) morning.

A comedy of 56 people will present Hider & Hall's new musical comedy, "Morning Glories in Zululand," at the Gayety Theatre next week. Heading the cast is the clever Irish comedian, Clara Evans, and dainty soubrette, Mlle. Babette.

There is but one "colle ballet" on the stage, and it is a part of the original "Top O' the World" Company, which comes to the Grand next week. New ballet as a delightful and refreshing novelty, and it is surely one of the most successful of the kind. The participants in the dance are six tiny girls, attired as school tots and six big, snow-white colts, of marvelous intelligence.

YEARS' WORK OF N.W.M.P.

Shorter Term of Enlistment and More Pay Recommended.

OTTAWA, March 9.—(Special).—Sir Wilfrid Laurier, as administrator of the bill of the report of the Royal North-West Mounted Police for 1908, has recommended a shorter term of enlistment and more pay for the force. The force now consists of 51 officers and 598 non-commissioned officers and men, a decrease of four officers and 100 men, and an increase of 14 constables. Because he had not the men available he was obliged reluctantly to refuse many applications for police posts. The loss to the force during the year was 117 men, 15 by purchase, 17 by desertion, 44 by dismissal and 11 for inefficiency. The chief cause for dismissal, he says, was drunkenness.

The three reasons assigned for not securing trustworthy, energetic men are the long engagement of five years, the rate of pay and the disciplinary Commissioner Perry recommends a reduction of term to three years and an increase in pay.

Two divisions are armed, he says, with Lee-Scott carbines; the rest with Winchester. "I am in hopes," he adds, "that this year the improved Ross rifle will be issued."

There was an increase compared with 1907 of 1554 prisoners, due to the gain in population. During the year the police entered 124 cases and secured 637 convictions.

The Lenten Sermon

Rev. Canon Welch in his mid-day Lenten sermon at St. James' Cathedral yesterday said that there was a right road for mankind to take, in accordance with this purpose of God in the creation, and that those who sin miss that road.

The outstanding features of the New Testament included the words of Jesus Christ in regard to sin. He taught that sin was not superficial matter. Sin was described by him as the soul's sin, the sin which was in the heart and which he believed passed out of death into life.

The parables of the lost sheep and the fig tree revealed the awful effects of sin. Sin was not superficial, it deeply and grievously affected the heart and the mind, and it was the source of all evil. Hence all evil proceeded. Such were the declarations of Jesus and showed the abundance of His love for the world. Jesus Christ came into the world to save mankind, and He will accept of any man who is willing to accept Him and be saved.

JACKSON WON'T RESIGN

Methodist General Conference Special Committee to Meet Soon.

The special committee of the Methodist General Conference will, it is expected, meet during the first week in April. The action taken by the general assembly to publicly censure Rev. George Jackson may be dealt with in the way of a motion of endorsement or otherwise.

Higher criticism is again to be discussed by the Toronto Methodist Ministers' Conference. Rev. Dr. S. D. Chown will lead the discussion with a paper on modern criticism and the present position of the Bible. The active connection of Rev. Mr. Jackson, should the present arrangements be consummated, will be severed by the end of the year. "The World," who retired after five years' service.

VATICAN ART GALLERY.

ROME, March 8.—The new picture gallery of the Vatican is to be inaugurated March 18, but permission was accorded to-day for a preliminary view of the pictures. The gallery contained sixty pictures, but the new collection embraces not less than three hundred canvases, displayed in a magnificent hall opening on the magnificent Belvedere Court. Above each door is a golden inscription dated by the artist. The first hall contains a splendid new gallery is due to the initiative of the present pope.

The additional pictures have been brought from the Lateran Palace and the private apartments of the Vatican. The first hall contains a splendid collection of pictures by foreign artists, the second is given over to the Tuscan school, headed by Fra. Angelico; the third contains examples of the Umbrian school; the fourth is the gem of the collection, Raphael's "Transfiguration" which hangs alone on the main wall; the fifth hall is given over to the Venetian school, headed by Titian; the sixth to examples of the sixteenth century and the seventh to pictures by foreign artists, headed by a magnificent portrait of George IV. of England by Lawrence.

KINGSTON LIBERALS.

KINGSTON, March 9.—The annual meeting of the Kingston Reform Association was held this evening. Alder- man Robert F. Elliot was elected president by acclamation, succeeding John McD. Movat, who retired after five years' service.

Spasmodic Pains In Arms and Chest

A Common Ailment from Which Many Are Suffering Just Now TELLS HOW TO CURE

These pains come on very suddenly and while they last the pain is excruciatingly severe. Sufferers are attacked suddenly with a violent pain in and around the chest, extending often to the shoulder and running down to the ends of the fingers. Often the chest is so much contracted as to give very painful feelings of suffocation.

To remove these pains nothing is known to act so rapidly as NERVILINE. Rub it on the chest, shoulders and take in hot sweetened water four times daily with about 20 drops of NERVILINE. Follow this and you'll find that not an ache or pain in any part of the body will remain.

It's the pain-subduing, penetrating power of NERVILINE that makes it so far superior to all other liniments. In chronic Rheumatism, Sciatica, Lumbago or long standing Nervitis gives quick relief—cures when hope seems lost.

You'll find a hundred uses for a trusty medicine like NERVILINE. It's good for toothache, sarache, stiff neck, colds, coughs and other simple ills which it cures so quickly; it should be in every home.

Beware of the unscrupulous dealer that tries to palm off something that pays him a larger profit. Insist on getting NERVILINE only. Large 25c bottle at all dealers.

At the Top of the World

Who, in your opinion, are at the top of the world to-day? The "Top of the World" company would like to get the opinions of Torontonians, and have asked the Contest Editor of The World to take the question up.

To the reader sending in the names of four eminent personages (male) who are leaders of to-day, will be given a box for the performance of "The Top of the World," at the Grand Monday evening.

To the reader sending in the names of four eminent personages (female) who are leaders of to-day, will be given a box for the same performance.

To the next three will be given two orchestra seats for Monday evening. Letters will be received up till Saturday evening.

JUMPS AND JABS; LIVES.

STUDENTS SUPPORT EAKIN

Memorial in His Favor Has Been Extensively Signed.

A memorial, addressed to Dr. Hoskin, chairman of the board of governors of Toronto University, has been signed already by nearly every student who has been receiving instruction in "Religious knowledge" at University College.

It certifies that they have received a great deal of assistance from the lectures of Rev. Dr. Eakin, that they have intended to give the students a better knowledge of the Bible.

The memorial has been the idea of several graduates and has been circulated in all the colleges and readily finds signatories.

The story which has been heard in Queen's Park is that the agitation is an attempt in a roundabout way to "get at" Prof. McCurdy, to whose views on the Bible sundry gentlemen of Dr. Carman's tendencies have taken objection.

WOMAN LASHES LAWYER

Excitement in State-street, Boston— Claimed She Was Persecuted.

BOSTON, March 9.—There was a brief tumult in State-street just after the opening of the stock exchange to-day, when a well-dressed woman was seen lashing George A. Sweetser, a lawyer, well known locally, with a stout dog-whip.

The woman was Mrs. Jessie B. McClellan of Natick, who declared that Sweetser had persecuted her in connection with a breach of promise suit which she has brought against a Boston business man, Mr. Sweetser being counsel for the respondent.

Neighbors had been in the habit of seeing that she was fixed up for the night and one of them stayed with her, but thru some misunderstanding no one stayed Thursday.

Her house is some distance from the neighbors, and, after the fire, she was seen—help was some time coming. She was dead when found.
