CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

Trading on the local live stock market at the Union Yards yesterday, while not very active, was good and steady with Monday's close, the run, an ordinary one for a Tuesday and well cleaned up. Good useful butchers were selling all right. There were two or three loads of good heavy steers, but it was preity hard to say what were for sale and what for show. Butcher cows were selling from 5c to 7 1-4c a lb., and canners went at 3 1-4c, the usual price. The better class of milkers and springers will always find a fair market, with the common to medium class selling slowly. The demand for good and choice breedy feeders continues fair to steady. On the whole the market was just about steady. Sheep and Lambs.

Choice lambs sold at from 12 3-4c to 17c, the most of them going at 12 1-2c to 12 3-4c; sheep were a slow sale, choice sheep selling up to 8c and 8 1-2c a lb.
