Mr. Yvon Pinard (Parliamentary Secretary to President of the Privy Council): To show my gratitude for such a warm welcome, I shall answer some five hundred questions today.

Mr. Speaker, the following questions will be answered today: 41, 44, 53, 159, 163, 174, 193, 358, 625, 630, 632, 699—

Mr. Speaker: Order, please. The hon. parliamentary secretary, in an assiduous task under his new responsibilities, has provided the House with a copy of the list of questions proposed to be answered today. Under the circumstances, because the list is rather extensive and is some 2½ pages in length, I wonder if the House might be of a disposition to file the list and consider it to have been read.

Some hon. Members: Hear, hear!

Mr. Knowles (Winnipeg North Centre): Agreed.
