SWETTENHAM RESIGNED RATHER THAN APOLOGIZE

He Received a Demand From Colonial Office to Apologize to Admiral Davis Over Jamaican Difficulty---Apology Carried His Resignation.

LONDON, April 5.—The Standard today declares it is able to publish for the first time the circumstances leading to the resignation of Sir Alexander Swettenham as governor of Jamaica. The paper says that according to Sir Alexander's own statement in a letter to an intimate friend, he resigned in consequence of a peremptory demand from the colonial office to apologize to Rear Admiral Davis. To this Sir Alexander replied that if such a course were necessary he would do so with pleasure, but such a compulsory apology carried with it resignation.

There was any dispute between him and the American admiral at the time of the Kingston earthquake, saying: "We were the best of friends during the whole time the admiral was here. He had the use of one of my private carriages and drove around with my private secretary."

MOTHER DYING, BOY ENDS LIFE

New York Lad of Fifteen, Overcome by Grief at Thought of Bereavement, Hangs Himself.

NEW YORK, April 4.—Although he was only fifteen years old, the love that Frederick Collinder bore for his mother was as strong as ever was that of manhood, and when he was told that she would be taken away from him for good he could not bear it. He killed himself yesterday, and the mother, lying on a bed of illness from which she is not expected to rise, keeps calling for him constantly, for she does not know he is dead.

MRS. EDDY IS A DELUDED PERSON

And for Years Has Been Incompetent, Says Ex-Senator Wm. E. Chandler.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—Former U. S. Sen. William E. Chandler, counsel for the plaintiffs in the Glover-Eddy suit, late Tuesday night issued a statement in which he declared that the new trust for Mrs. Eddy's property, "is a trick contrived by her jailors" to avoid a possible reversion and that the defendants in the suit have "used her delusions and incompetency to serve their own selfish ends."

THE PREMIER OF CANADA IN ST. JOHN TODAY ON HIS WAY TO FERRAND

Large Gathering Greeted Sir Wilfrid at Sand Point---Richard O'Brien of the Globe Has Long Conference With Premier

When the C. P. R. royal mail steamer Empress of Britain sails this evening about 5 or 6 o'clock, she will take away a large number of distinguished passengers. Among those who arrived in a special train this morning from Montreal to take passage in the steamer were: Lady Grey, wife of the Governor General, her sister, Lady Morley and party, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Lady Laurier and party; Hon. L. P. Brochu and Madame Brochu; Sir Frederick Borden, Miss Melvin Jones, Judge and Miss Choquette, Mrs. Clifford Sifton, Viscountess Dogenne, Judge Morcy, Mrs. David McNicol, son and daughter, the Hon. Emmanuel Tasse, R. A. Willard and Madame Willard, Mrs. Grantham, Toronto; Mrs. Scott Griffin, of Winnipeg; and nineteen members of the Capital cross-country team, who are to play before His Majesty the King in London. Hon. W. F. Ridd and the Misses Fielding will also join the steamer at Halifax.

The fire broke out at about five o'clock from some unknown cause and before the fire department reached, the scene was a mass of flames. It was clearly seen that nothing could be saved, and the firemen directed their attention to keeping the fire away from the other buildings.

Sir Frederick Borden and Hon. Mr. Brochu. Sir Wilfrid looked exceedingly well and he does not appear to have changed any since his visit here some years ago and he moved about as easily as a man in his twenties. Lady Laurier also looked exceedingly well.

THE THAW TRIAL MAY BE HELD OVER FOR WEEKS

NEW YORK, April 5.—Much uncertainty again invests the Thaw case. Harry K. Thaw is sane according to the finding of the commission in Lunacy, which has placed in Justice Fitzgerald's hands the report that he is adjudged competent to stand trial. But this triumph by him over the prosecution may end with the report, and he may yet have to spend many weary weeks of imprisonment before his fate is decided.

MR. BINK'S GRIEF

Mr. Peter Binks is worried. He is like a man who has suddenly quit using tobacco and goes about with a far from happy expression, absent-mindedly feeling in his pocket for a match and acting generally as one distraught.

THE TIMES NEW REPORTER

waterworks extension was a bungle, or the fire department too good, or the directors of departments not big enough for a couple more just like the most obtuse of the present members have been elected for the year, and the carnival goes on. And it makes me lonesome. I feel as if I had lost a friend, or quit taking a tonic, or suffered from the after effects of gripe—or something of the sort. Now I have been getting on my feet with great eagerness, "could you please call one of the aldermen names, or say things about your taxes—or something of the sort? I would relieve me so much. It would give me a new lease of life."

The new reporter regretfully replied that being a newspaper man and always looking for something that would appeal to his sense of humor, he could not conscientiously do anything that might have the effect of influencing public opinion against the present city council. It would be like throwing an inspiration. "No, sir—I can't do it."

Mr. Binks sighed, and it was plain that he was disappointed.

MR. MAYES WANTS DREDGE CHANGED

He Suggests That the Beaver be Put to Work at the End of New Wharf.

With reference to the difficulties experienced by Mr. Mayes in dredging in the channel between the Sand Point wharves and the proposed new structure, owing to steamers coming and going, and necessitating frequent moving about of the dredge, Mr. Mayes suggests that the department of public works might be communicated with to allow him to place the dredge at the end of the wharf now berth. This would keep the dredge out of the way of the steamers and also facilitate the work of getting the new berth ready.
