FITZ WILL RAISE O'BRIEN'S ANTE AND FIGHT FOR $5,000.

Lanky Bob Takes up the Def of the Ambitious Middleweight and Indulges in Oratory—Jack Power Will Not Re-enter the Ring.

Jack O'Brien has thrown a bombshell into the ranks of the three crack middleweights—Fitzsimmons, McCoy and Ryan—by posting a $1,000 forfeit on Wednesday and issuing a sweeping challenge to fight for the world's championship.

Hardly had Kid McCoy's manager accepted the def Monday morning when there came a rumbling roar over the telegraph wires from Buffalo, where old Bob Fitzsimmons, playing this week with his show, raises O'Brien $4,000 in the matter of a forfeit, and, what's more, insists that same, at least, be allowed to stand as a side bet. When old Fitz was shown the Evening Journal in Buffalo containing O'Brien's challenge, he at once flared up and burst forth as follows:

"Jack O'Brien wants to fight me? He's four-fushing. He won't fight me. If O'Brien is in earnest, and him waiting long. Now, I'll tell you. Next week I will be in New York and I'll post from $5,000 to $20,000 with Harry Beecher, sporting editor of the Evening Journal, to bind a match. Let O'Brien cover my forfeit—less than $5,000 will not do—and after the match is made I'm willing to let any part of the forfeit money go as a side bet. That's good enough, isn't it?"

In the most emphatic manner Fitzsimmons showed that he does not intend to allow the Quaker fighter to pose as the middleweight champion. He says that before O'Brien can claim that title he must beat him.

"I am the only legitimate middleweight champion," continued Fitzsimmons, after his anger had settled down. "I never claimed the title. Not me. I went out and won it by good hard fighting. No one ever beat me for the title, did they? I guess not. And this fellow O'Brien couldn't do it in a month. I'm still middleweight champion, and I'm the lightweight champion, too."

"Because I have been fighting heavyweights for the past ten years is no sign that I can't lick all these middleweights. O'Brien has no more claim to the title than Jack Munroe. Who did he ever lick that guv'nor to him? Did he lick me in Philadelphia? No, I had him out in 35 seconds. No, I didn't hear after the police to stop it? I heard after the police and all the politicians to stop the fight in the first round if he was going to get licked."

After a brief pause, during which and thinks so well of the proposition that he will probably sign the contract. Jeffries is not likely to do any fighting abroad, as England has no real heavyweight at present capable of giving the bottommaker a scrap. It is his intention to settle in New York. His wife, it is said, owns considerable property in Harlem. Jeffries will probably open a saloon if he can secure a good location. As regards a fight he says that if the public will discover some one who can fight and who will be a drawing card he will immediately put on the gloves and defend his title.

DANGER IN MINE FIRE.

Village Threatened and Railways in Peril from Cave-Ins.

New York, Oct. 18.—According to a despatch to the Sun from Soanokin, a fire in the Enterprise mine there, which started on Saturday morning, has assumed such alarming proportions that fears are entertained that part of the village of Excelsior, underneath which the mines are, may be swallowed up by cave-ins if the fire cannot be checked. The Penna. and Reading roads are also in peril. They run over part of the danger zone. The mine fire has raged so fiercely that all the timber in the slope has been consumed, and it is thought the flames pushed their way to the Mammoth vein and ignited it. This mine is the thickest and best in the coal field, and if the coal is ignited thoroughly it may take years to conquer the blaze. Mine Inspector Evans of this district, said that if the fire was not out in a few days, it would require many months before the end could be seen.
