ST. JOHN BOYS OF 23RD BATTERY OFF TO FRANCE TO FIGHT

Frank Jennings Sends Word From Shorncliffe—Also Tells of Other Local Soldiers—Major Magee Praised

"The last week has seen some wonderful changes in our old brigade," writes Q. M. S. Frank Jennings to his mother, Mrs. P. L. Jennings, East St. John, from Shorncliffe, England. "Of the 181 men who came over with the 23rd Battery, but a few remain here. The rest, I suppose, are now at our base in France. Before the draft left we had in our battery about 800 men—we are now down to about 180 or so, and all our St. John boys with the exception of Sergt. Major Patchell and Harry Holman, are gone. They left on Thursday and it has certainly been lonesome here since then, although there has been plenty of work to keep us busy.

"Sergt. Gustave Kuhring, Corp. Jack Hipwell, Bomb-Chief Merritt, Bomb. Hertz, Major McKay, our O. C. has gone in charge of the draft. I have now made Brigadier Q. M. S. Sergeant in charge of guns and gun stores, which will mean that I will go over to the big headquarters at this week.

"Southeast Kent is a regular little Canada these times, and within a radius of five or six miles there must be fully 15,000 or 20,000 Canadian troops. I was talking last week with Charlie Malouin, the doctor's brother, and 'Standy' Ross, from East St. John, both of whom are here with the 3rd. (McGill) General Hospital. Both seem to be enjoying life as it comes to us here. I also saw Don Campbell, who was in Fredericton when we left, and came over here with the artillery park, which arrived last week. I had a note the other day from Frank O'Brien of the North End, who came over with the 21st Battalion as signaller, but have not yet seen him. They are located about five miles from here."

Q. M. S. Jennings speaks of Lieut. T. E. Ryder of St. John joining his battery. He also spoke of a Sergt. Collins having been attached after having been wounded in France. While taking up ammunition to his battery at night his horse went into a hole made by a "Jack Johnson" and he had his leg broken. Sergt. Collins said that all St. John men were doing well and spoke particularly of Major Magee, who had made a name for himself at the front.

GETS HIGH POST IN Y. M. C. A. IN WASHINGTON

George R. Keith, Formerly of Havelock, N. B.—Sister Lives Here

George Reese Keith of Havelock Kings County, was on June 7 placed in charge of the publicity and promotion work of the twenty-four Young Men's Christian Associations in the State of Washington. This is one of the most rapid promotions ever made in the rank of the association.

A year ago Mr. Keith joined the staff of the Seattle Association, which boasts of being the 8th largest institution of its kind in the world. Spectacular work persistently kept up won for him the new position in the face of keen competition among local secretaries on the Pacific Coast.

Mr. Keith's strongest recommendation was the fact that he had considerable newspaper experience, and was held in high regard by the newspapers with whom he had come into contact. In a recent seven days' campaign for membership supremacy between the Seattle association and the one located at Portland, Oregon, the Seattle Y. M. C. A. for the first time in its history moved its rival under, obtaining in the seven days a total of 1,200 new members, the most successful membership campaign ever had in American northwest. The victory was attributed to the support obtained through Keith, from the four Seattle dailies.

In personal work he also out-distanced any twenty-five other workers, obtaining single handed more than 800 new members. Since then scores of offers have come to him from other institutions and the present one has been under consideration for more than five months.

Mr. Keith is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua M. Keith, of Havelock, one of the best known families in the district. He attended the Havelock High School and the Pettoctadic High School.

Mr. Keith has a sister, Miss Elizabeth. Later he went to the Fredericton Provincial Normal school, where he was editor-in-chief of the Student paper. Later he taught at Sussex, and was for some time principal of the Harcourt High School. He is well known in western Canada where he was engaged in educational work in all three of the prairie provinces obtaining considerable attention because of his political activities during the reciprocity fight.

He is only twenty-six years old and was promoted over the heads of several men a great many years older. On entering his new duties he said that since he had left home eight years ago, he had not had a single vacation and had planned to take one this year to go east to his parents, but the demands of the new office compelled him to go without any holidays until at least late in the year.

Keith has a sister, Miss Elizabeth L. L. Keith, living at 27 Garden street, St. John.

THE K. OF C. STATE COUNCIL

Members of St. John Council, 387, Knights of Columbus, who have been in attendance at the annual state convention, returned home from Halifax last evening. The convention was well attended, and many matters of importance were discussed. In addition to the business sessions, there was a good programme of entertainment, including a tour to objects of interest about the city, a harbor excursion, and a musical entertainment. W. J. Mahoney, grand knight of St. John council, was present as a local delegate, while W. M. Ryan, Andrew Dean, and others were present at the exemplification of degrees. The "third degree" was exemplified by G. H. Bolvin, M. P. of Quebec.

Among the resolutions was one pertaining to members who have joined the colors since the outbreak of war, worded as follows:

"Whereas the Empire of which we are proud to be the loyal subjects is engaged in a stupendous struggle for existence, a struggle unparalleled both for the ferocity with which it is being waged, and the inhuman treatment accorded non-combatants, and the innocent and helpless who are being slaughtered; and whereas the call to arms has been joyfully answered by members of our order in this jurisdiction, who felt that their citizenship demanded that they enlist to serve King and country;

"Therefore resolved that we, assembled in state council, heartily approve of the action of subordinate councils in paying all dues and assessments of such members for the duration of the war; and we further bespeak for the various patriotic and charitable funds your generous and cordial support."

A WORD AS TO THE LOCAL PATRIOTIC FUND

In a letter to the press G. B. Allan, secretary of the Canadian Patriotic Fund (draws attention to a case recently before the police court in which a heavy sentence was imposed on Mrs. Charles Carlin, of 72 Camden street, for an attempt to secure from the fund money to which she was not entitled. He says:—

"This was prevented by our system of identification, showing the necessity of those receiving money from this fund preserving their identification cards. I would also like to point out that there have been cases where people have accepted and cashed checks to which they were not entitled. The patriotic fund as well as separation allowance is intended for the families and dependents of soldiers now serving, and the relatives of soldiers who have left the service are running great risks in accepting and using money to which they are not entitled after the soldier's name has been struck off the rolls of the battalion to which he belonged. I would suggest that any of this class should immediately return checks of this nature to this office."

Mr. Allan now has his office in the Globe-Atlantic building through the courtesy of the owners.

The Lapel of a Young Man's Coat

It's the key to the character of the whole garment. Unless the hand-stitching, the perfect fitting and the scrupulously careful tailoring are there—the coat is a sham.

No style! No wear! No value for your money. Look at the lapel of the coat you are wearing. Is it awry? Is it wrinkled? Something wrong if it is.

See the new clothing for men at Oak Hall.

Note the careful tailoring, the style, the finish and the absence of flash. Then you will see why this store is getting the lion's share of the young men's business.
