Ragnus, Jugoslavia, March 17.—(The Associated Press.)—Friends of the late Czar Nicholas, members of the upper crust of society of imperial Russia, and Bolshevik army collapsed and who are living in squalor in camps infested with typhus and typhoid here and at Catterp in the Delatinsk area.

Widows among the refugees are fighting to save the lives of their children. Ruchoff, daughter of one of the czar's ministers and wife of a colonel of the Imperial Guard, was murdered by the Bolsheviks, is making buttonholes in a effort to keep up appearances and save herself and children from starvation. The American Red Cross is aiding her by giving an allowance of milk, shoes, etc., to her children.

Many of the Russians who are artists or dancers have organized an opera ballet to travel in Jugoslavia. The correspondent saw one performance and it was well done, the work of real artists. Some of the opera singers among the refugees are making a living by touring the small towns hereabouts.

None of the 1,500 refugees are well fitted to become teachers. To the correspondent, the present status of Jugoslavia is not such as to allow so large a number to be absorbed. Many of the Russian officers have succeeded in joining the Jugoslav army.
