Room Size Tapestry Squares

We refer mainly to large size Tapestry Squares because they are more on our mind. To be very frank about it, we indulge in these extra square size more for reputation than for the profit they represent. If we can get our money back with simple interest that's enough.

In Floral and Oriental patterns, rich and unusual. They certainly excel carpets in the making of home beautiful. Some exceptional bargains in low priced Tapestry Carpets.

LOCAL NEWS

THEIR LITTLE ONE DEAD
Captain and Mrs. J. Boyd Morehouse will have the sympathy of many friends in the death of their infant daughter, Helen Christine, who died on Sunday at their home, 106 Queen street.

A. L. LAWS APPOINTMENT
Alexander L. Law has been appointed deputy collector of Inland Revenue for the division of St. John, and will enter upon his new duties either today or tomorrow.

CONFIRMATION
The sacrament of confirmation will be administered by His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc, for the first time, in this city on June 29 in St. Peter's church. The ceremony will probably take place in the afternoon.

AGREEMENT REACHED
Commissioner Kerr reported at the meeting of the city commissioners today that an agreement, satisfactory to both parties, had been reached with the McCleary Mfg. Co. regarding the encroachment of a city retaining wall on their property on Prince William street.

PRESENTATION TO CITY
Mr. John Kerr, through the city recorder, today presented to the city commissioners some old corporation accounts which had been collected by the late chief of the fire department. The documents are of considerable historical value and the gift was gratefully acknowledged.

DEATH OF SAMUEL J. BISSETT
Ward has reached the point, asking of the death of Samuel J. Bissett, in Roxbury, Mass., on May 16, after a lingering illness. He was a son of the late Captain Thomas and Mary Bissett and was in his 70th year. He leaves his wife, five sons and one daughter; also three sisters—Mrs. Chas. Hyde, of Roxbury; Mrs. Richard Heffer and Mrs. Robert Barbour, of this city.

SOME NICE ONES
There is at least one good sportsman in the city who does not believe in journeying far from home to enjoy casting a line. Henry Hector of Spar Cove Road on Saturday last surprised some of his friends by bringing home a nice mess of trout which he had caught in the old mill dam, a few hundred yards back of Victoria street, in the upper part of the stream. Among them was a nice plump trout weighing exactly one pound.

LEAVE WHARF REPAIRS TO GOVERNMENT
A communication from Connelly & Chastleton, contractors on the government wharves at Sandpoint, asking that the city put a new dock on the old C. P. R. wharf so that they could use it for mixing concrete was considered by the city commissioners this morning. The application was declined on the grounds that the wharf had been taken over by the government and had been torn down by government contractors. If any repairs are to be made the commissioners consider it the duty of the federal authorities to undertake the work.

THE SUGAR REFINERY
E. H. Anson, of Montreal, president of the Atlantic Sugar Refining Company, arrived in the city today to inspect the work which is under progress on the company's plant at Baileys Cove. Mr. Anson said that the work was progressing satisfactorily and that the preliminary work, which was being carried on by the Foundation Company of New York should be completed by June 1. The construction of the superstructure of the various buildings will then be commenced promptly and he fully expects to see the whole plant completed within the contract period.

MRS. ANDREW LEWIS

IN HONOR OF LOYALIST DAY

Holiday For School Children and Firing of Salute Today—Special Sermons in the Churches

Loyalist day is being observed about the city today. On account of its falling this year on Sunday, it is being observed as a holiday by the schools today.

At noon No. 2 battery 8th R. C. A., in command of Major McEwan, fired a salute of 21 guns in honor of the day.

In several churches yesterday reference was made to the event and the interest it bears to St. John's history. The celebration of the event will be continued tonight in Keble's Assembly rooms at a joint patriotic gathering.

Rev. Dr. W. O. Raymond, chaplain of the N. B. Loyalist, preached a eloquent sermon last evening dealing with the day, taking his text as "The Lord our God be with us, as He was with our fathers; let Him not leave us nor forsake us." He gave a masterly discourse dealing with the coming of the patriotic band of loyal hearts to this place and their establishing a city here, emphasizing the spirit of self-sacrifice and mutual helpfulness displayed in their enterprises. Their example, he said, was a rebuke to the self-seeking interest by a large gathering.

Rev. H. A. Cody preached an interesting sermon last evening in St. James' church on "The Will of Time," during the course of which he made reference to the history of the Loyalists.

In German street Baptist church, Rev. F. S. Porter also referred to the occasion, and in his sermon paid a tribute to the founders of St. John.

DEATH OF MRS. RAND IN WOLFVILLE, N. S.

News of the death of Mrs. Theodore H. Rand, which occurred at Wolfville yesterday, will be learned with deep regret by her many friends in St. John. Although she had reached the advanced age of seventy years, Mrs. Rand enjoyed excellent health until recently and her death was unexpected by her friends here. The news was received in St. John this morning by Rev. F. S. Porter in a telegram from Dr. DeWolfe of Annapolis Seminary. The telegram simply announced that she had died yesterday and that the funeral will be held on Tuesday.

Mrs. Rand was the widow of the late Theodore H. Rand, who was for years Chief Superintendent of Education in New Brunswick and who afterwards was Chancellor of McMaster University. His death occurred in Fredericton at the Centennial exercises of the University of New Brunswick in 1900, when he was in attendance to receive an honorary degree, and since then Mrs. Rand has been living quietly in Wolfville.

BOARD OF HEALTH INSPECTORS OUT

Annual Tour Begun Today—Second Inspection to Follow

The temporary inspectors appointed by the board of health started on their rounds today. They will make a tour of the premises in each ward, and to Lancaster and St. Martin's. The city for the most part, is in a fair state of cleanliness at present as a result of the clean-up day last week, but there are some sections in which the board of health must enforce its regulations. The inspectors and their districts are: Andrew Buis, Guys and Brooks; Thomas McMaster, Lorne and Stanley; James McKinney, Kings and part of Queens; Hugh J. McElroy, Lansdowne; John Kelly, Jr., Dufferin and Victoria; John G. Cliff, Wellington and part of Queens; J. H. Bazley, Prince; George E. Lavers, Sydney and Dukes; Theodore Sears, Lancaster, and F. M. Cochran, St. Martin's. They will proceed at once upon their first inspection, following a short time later with a second one.

FORTY HOURS DEVOTION

The exercises of the Forty Hours' Devotion came to a close last evening in St. Joseph's church, Silver Falls, with the Litany of the Saints, benediction and an excellent sermon on "The Real Presence" by the parish priest, Rev. A. J. O'Neill. The devotions were begun on Friday morning and the congregation attended the services in large numbers. Last evening several persons from the city attended the closing exercises.

A Boys' Clothing Store That is Really Helpful

It is not sufficient that we show the greatest variety of Boy's Clothing in the city. It will not satisfy us that the garments shall be displayed to the best advantage. We are not content that prices are as low as the lowest elsewhere, and, on a majority of the most in demand clothing, lower. We must completely satisfy you and the boy in every detail of style, fit, finish, wearing quality and comfort. Our salespeople must be alert to help you with facts, details—advice when you ask it.

Our organization today embraces just that.
