

Overcoat Elegance

most overcoats look fairly well in stores. They are pressed into shape, the fabrics are fresh, there is about them the charm of newness.

BUT THE TEST COMES IN SERVICE. Snow and rain, rough usage, daily wear—these bring out the good or poor qualities of apparel.

ACTION FOR $1,000 IN BRUSSELS STREET CASE IS BEGUN

The case of Margaret McRae vs. Walter Clarke and Clara Clarke, was before Justice Leamy in the circuit court this morning.

They live at 284 Brussels street. The plaintiff claims that arising out of certain domestic quarrels, the defendant assaulted and beat her on September 24 last, that Clara Clarke seized her by the hair of the head, and Walter Clarke caught hold of her and dragged her upstairs and threw her violently to the floor. She says that by reason of the assault she has been unable to attend to her usual household duties and her occupation as a nurse; also that she became worse yesterday morning and was born in Fredericton. Besides her husband she is survived by three sons and two daughters.

The sons are Gordon S. and Albert of this city and Kenneth of Peterboro, Ont. The daughters are Misses Sadie P. and Dorothy at home. Four sisters—Mrs. F. McAndrews of this city, Mrs. C. Noble and Miss Emma Gough of Boston, and Mrs. William Gough of New York.

It is a brother. One son, Harry H. of the marine and fisheries department here, died only a few weeks ago.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon. Service will be held at half past two o'clock and the funeral will be at a quarter to three. There will be widespread sympathy for Mrs. Brown and family in their bereavement.
