Dr. J. C. Avez. Sir, I have been afflicted with a painful chronic Recumulation for a long time, which beffled the skill of physicians, and stuck to me in spite of all the reducedies I could find, until I tried your Sarcaparilla. One bottle cured me in two weeks, and restored my general health so much that I am far better than before I was attacked. I think it a wonderful medicine. J. FIELAM.

Jules Y. Getchell, of St. Louis, writes: "I have been efficied for years with an affection of the Liver, which destroyed my health. I tried every thing, and overy thing alied to relave me; and I have been a tooken-down man for some years from no other cause than derangement of the Liver. My beloved pastor, the liev. This is a remedy so universally known to surpass any other for the cure of threat and lung complaints, that it is useless here to publish the evidence of its virtues. It is unrivalled excellence for coughs and colds, and its truly wonderful cures of pulmonary disease, have made it known throughout the civilized nations of the earth. Few are the communities, or even families, among them who have not some personal experience of its effects—some living trophy in their midste of its victory over the subtle and dangerous disorders of the threat and lungs. As is in the continuous discourance of the continuous days when the dreadful facility of these disorders, and as they know, too, the effects of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them that it has now all the virtues that it did have when making the cures which have no a strongly upon the confidence of mankind.
