

OUR QUEEN'S MESSAGE

Full of Womanly Sympathy to Italian Royal Family.

BRESCI IN A STRAIT JACKET.

Suspected Design Upon the Life of the Present King of Italy. An Arrest Made After a Severe Struggle With a Suspect-Chapel to be Erected Where Humbert Fell.

London, Aug. 7.—The reply of Queen Victoria to the address of Parliament to the throne, moved July 31, with reference to the assassination of King Humbert of Italy, thanks Parliament for the address, and says: "I unite with you in the expression of indignation and deep concern at the tidings of the assassination of my illustrious ally, the King of Italy. I have not failed to convey to my successor your sentiments of abhorrence of such a crime, and your sympathy with the royal family, Government and people of that country."

ANOTHER ANARCHIST AT WORK.

Suspected of Having Designed on New King a Arrested.

Rome, Aug. 7.—The City Council of Monza has ceded the plot of ground, including the spot where King Humbert was assassinated, to the royal family, who will erect a chapel there. Queen Margherita has composed a tender prayer in memory of her husband, and has obtained permission from the Archbishop of Cremona to circulate it among the faithful. King Victor Emmanuel and Queen Helena will arrive in Monza Wednesday. The remains of King Humbert will leave Monza the same day, reaching this city at 9 a.m. Ximenes, the colonel who proposes to erect a monument to Queen Margherita in the gardens of the Pincio.

May Have Been a Plot to Kill.

At the railway station in Rome, while the King and Queen were en route from Reggio to Monza, a well-dressed individual was discovered hiding with a revolver concealed on his person. He was arrested and manacled after a severe struggle and was then sent on to Milan to be examined by Bresci's judges. Compromising letters and documents have been found upon him. It has been decided that Bresci will not be tried in Monza but by the ordinary tribunal.

Naples, Aug. 7.—Queen Margherita and her mother are both prostrated and unable to sit up.

The King's proclamation to the army has caused lively satisfaction here. The funeral train. Monza, Aug. 7.—The train carrying the remains of the late King, which will be accompanied by the Duke of Aosta and the Count of Turin, will leave Monza Wednesday afternoon at 4 p.m. It will stop two minutes at Milan, five at Genoa and Thursday morning at 20 minutes past 7.

Tribunes Draped in Black.

Rome, Aug. 7.—The Chamber of Deputies yesterday opened with an immense throng present. The tribunes were draped with black. The president of the Chamber, Victor Villa, delivered a memorial address, eulogizing the late King Humbert. He was frequently applauded.

Milan, Aug. 6.—Bresci, the assassin of King Humbert, has abandoned the attitude of calm which he had assumed since the murder was committed, and has been given way to fits of passion. This morning he was placed in a straight jacket for 10 hours.

French Police Have Arrested Auguste Vata, a Dangerous Anarchist.

Paris, Aug. 6.—The French police have arrested at Abbeville Auguste Vata, a dangerous anarchist, who is supposed to have been the instigator of Salson's attempt upon the Shah of Persia. Vata left Paris immediately after the crime. He and Salson will be confronted. The police tried to discharge Salson's revolver, but not one of the five cartridges would explode, because of the way in which he had tamped the hammer.

Lacy Parsons Will Fight.

Chicago, Aug. 7.—The cases of the five alleged anarchists, including Mrs. Lacy Parsons, Clement Pfeutzner and Abram Eliehardt, who were arrested on Sunday on West 12th street during a riot, caused by the suppression of the police of an attempted meeting to rejoice over the assassination of the King of Italy, were postponed until Saturday, after considerable testimony had been heard. Mrs. Parsons announced her intention to fight her case to the end. All of those arrested were released on bonds.

Copyright of Speeches.

London, Aug. 7.—The House of Commons yesterday gave judgment in the case of The Times v. Lane, the question being whether a reporter can copyright speeches. The judgment reversed the decision of the Court of Appeals, and upheld the copyright of The Times. Lord Robson dissented from the judgment.
