)maha, April 18.-The Kelly army is ll in camp six miles east of Council uffs, where it has been since Monday sht. It will probably move this afte: on to a better camp a mile away. It nearly out of food, but the Omaha citias and labor organizations are getting dinner for it. The industrials were ked in the rain last night. The ownof the Chatauqua Pavilion has, against protest of the militia, given a permit e it two days in case of rain. No in to carry the army is in sight and Chicago roads and Iowa authorities evidently bent on making the path this army so rough as to deter any ers from attempting to follow. lly men stand their privations uncominingly and make as light of them as sible lly to move on. Upon the urgent re ests of the citizens of Council Bluifs. vernor Jackson has ordered the mill which has been guarding Kelly's ny withdrawn to Council Bluffs transdepot, leaving the army six miles w to preventing a threatened uprising ople that would drive away the miliand capture a train for the grany. enty men from Reno, Nevada, who they are going to join Kelly, with E. man, a miner, in command, stopped Grand Island to-day. He says 200 are two days behind them on the mission.

lancock, Md., April 18.-There was a ly time after the Commonweal ariny reached Hancock. It was said that arro. Smith and Childs, formerly the ance agents of the army of the Comweal, had reached Hancock together terday, and representing themselves the authorized agents of Coxey, nad ed a considerable sum of money and l left for Williamsport, the next town the route. Brown and Coxey at .ne ied a manifesto addressed to Charles bert, sheriff, and the public, lenounthe Commonwealers as impostors, asking their arrest should they b The Commonweal army follow was not hospitably received in Hank in spite of the large crowd that eted it.
