A JUNE THOUGHT.

The poet sings in glowing rapture pent,
While the white clouds in airy grace unfurl :
"Now is the Winter of our discontent
Made glorious Summer by the Summer Girl!"

SPOILING THE JOB.

Jaggles—"The man was lying in the street where he had tried to kill himself. I began to question him and it seemed to make him angry."

Waggles—"No wonder. When a man has gone to the trouble to poison himself he doesn't like to be pumped.

A CHILD'S COMPOSITION ON NAMES.

If it were not for names they would call you calf, or something of that sort. If you ain't christened you can't have any name. Nick-names are when you have a name and don't like it and get called something else. Slippers is a nickname for shoe.

HE READS THE PAPERS.

Mother—"How comes it that your shirt is on wrong-side-out and one stocking missing?"
Have you been swimming?

Son—"Well, mother, if you're going to be an investigating committee, I simply can't remember anything about it."
