

and the Board of Governors, for this purpose, on conditions which these bodies readily accepted, the McMaster residence on Bloor Street, and funds for adapting the building to its new use. Mrs. McMaster's whole gift is of the cash value of $26,000. The institution thus founded is known as Moulton Ladies' College, and perpetuates the family name of the founder.

In accordance with a resolution of the Senate, March 19, 1889, the Arts work of the University was inaugurated at the beginning of the College year of 1890-91.

Examinations and Standings.

1. Students in every department of the University, including academic departments, shall be required to pass a satisfactory written examination at the close of each College year.

2. The questions for all written examinations shall be prepared by the professors or teachers who gave the instruction to the students to be examined. These questions, except for junior classes in Woodstock College and Moulton College, before being used, must be approved by associate examiners appointed by the Senate.

3. The written answers on all subjects below the senior year of any course shall be read and valued by the professor or teacher who prepared the questions; but the answers on all subjects in the senior year of any course shall be read and valued by the associate examiners to whom the questions were submitted for approval.

4. A standing shall be given for class work and for written examinations. The class standing shall be given for faithful attendance upon class instruction, earnest effort put forth to perform all the work assigned from time to time during the College year, and for the knowledge and mental discipline acquired in performing this work. The standing in this case shall be ascer-
