SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE For CATARRH 6

Smelling, Seeing and Hearing. It is the muscous membrane, that wonderful semi-fluid envelope surrounding the delicate tissues of the air and food passages, that Catarrh makes it steonghold. Once established, it eats into the very vitals, and renders life but a long-drawn breath of misery and disease, dulling the sense of hearing, tramelling the power of speech, destroying the feutly of smell, and killing the refined pleasures of taste. Insidiously, by creeping on from a simple cold-in the head, it assaults the membranous lining and-envelops the bones, eating through the delicate coals and causing inflammation, sloughing, and death. Nothing short of total eradication will secure health to the patient, and all alleviatives are simply procrastinated sufferings, leading to a fatal termination. San-FORL'S RADICAL CURE, by Inhalation and by Internal administration, has never failed, even when the disease has made frightful inroads on delicate constitutions, hearing, smell, and taste have been recovered, and the disease thoroughly driven out.
