A NAKED FACT.

A celebrated continental specialist to whom time was literally money and who was possessed of a fiery temper, made it a rule that all patients should undress before entering his consulting room so as not to waste any of his valuable time. One day a meek-looking little man entered with all his clothes on. "What do you mean by coming in like that?" said the doctor. "In a rage, 'Go and strip at once.'" "But I—" faltered the man. "I tell you I've no time to waste," yelled the doctor, and the poor man left the room in haste. When his turn came he re-entered the room. "Now, then," said the doctor, "that's better. What can I do for you?" "I called to collect your subscription for the benevolent society,"—The Tailor.

JUDICIOUS WOMAN.

Mr. Dreamleigh—"Yes, darling, clouds may lurk in the dim and uncertain future, but when with you, dearest, I think of nothing but the present—the happy, the beautiful present."

Lover One—"Yes, George, so do I. But take you with me to buy it—your men have such odd taste in rings."

Brown—"Say, Jones, does the landlord ask much for the rent of your flat?"

Jones—"Oh, yes, about three times a week."

Piano Tuning!

It is surprising how many people neglect to tune their Pianos. Not only is a Piano that is out of tune, not fit to listen to, but it is a positive injury to let a Piano run down and stand a long period without tuning. A Piano should be tuned at least two or three times a year.

We have a first-class tuner in connection with our office and would be pleased to have your orders.
