LOCAL NEWS.

WANTED—At the Royal Hotel, two chambermaids.

The police extinguished a bonfire on Harrison street last night.

The glass was broken in fire alarm box No. 51 last night.

A string of prayer beads found on Union St. awaits an owner at Central station.

At noon today the condition of Dr. A. E. Presto, was considerably improved and Dr. Addy and Levin now hold out some hopes for his recovery.

A large crowd of city laborers are at work excavating on Main street opposite Fort Howe. The sidewalk has sunk considerably of late and a retaining wall is to be built.

The Boston train which arrived this morning brought a large number of tourists to the city. The tourist travel is now heavy and the hotels are well filled.

A meeting of the committee in charge of the Champlain monument fund will be held soon. Mayor Rogers states that only a portion of the money subscribed has been received and as Hamilton McCarthy, the sculptor, is anxious to start work at once an attempt will be made to get all subscriptions in as soon as possible.

H. C. Rutter, chief of the Fredericton Fair department is in the city on a business trip and is getting the glad hand from numerous friends. W. S. Hooper, secretary of the Fredericton Exhibition Association is also in the city making good his short stay in booming the big show at the capital in September.

The price of strawberries advanced one cent per box today. The river steamers brought down large quantities this morning but the demand was so heavy that the supply soon ran out and an advance in price was the result. Market sold for the lowest prices this season yesterday. They brought 6c. and 6c. per box by the crate. Today they are selling at 7c. per box.

A large quantity is expected to arrive tomorrow.

Park Melville, a former St. John newspaper man, has been elected to the big Knights Templars convention at Saratoga last week. Mr. Melville was on the personal staff of the Grand Commander of the Knights Templars and during the parade which is said to have been one of the finest held in America, the St. John man rode in a barouche with other distinguished K. T's.

A MYSTERIOUS VISIT

Magistrate Ritchie and other officials of the police court are wondering this morning whether there were burglars in the police court last night, for there was something wrong. The magistrate was not in the city but George, the janitor of the building, claims that last evening he saw a light burning in the magistrate's private office, and that this morning the police court door and the private office door were open. Police clerk Henderson says that he was in the building early in the evening but was not in the magistrate's office. He did not leave any doors open nor turn on any lights. The affair is a mystery and the cops of the city will find hard to fathom.

THE SEIZED GOODS HAD NOT BEEN SMUGGLED

A quantity of goods seized by Customs Officer Sandall on information supplied by two members of the Assyrian colony on March twenty-fourth last, was returned to Mrs. Lizale Moses, the owner of the seized articles, yesterday.

Mrs. Moses is a member of the Assyrian colony and is engaged in the dry goods business. She is not on friendly relations with some of the other members, and claims they supplied the false information to the customs officer that she was in possession of smuggled goods. The officer paid a visit to her house early in the morning of March twenty-fourth last, and seized a trunk and bundle full of goods said to have been smuggled.

Mrs. Moses later hailed the two Mowery brothers to the police court on a charge of assault, and incidentally the alleged smuggling case became public. Mrs. Moses, confident of her innocence, has kept working on the case since the time of the seizure and yesterday had her goods returned to her, there being no proof that they had been smuggled. She took a trip to St. Andrews and proved that the duty on the goods had been paid when they were brought in from the United States.

Mrs. Moses now stands vindicated before the officers and before the other members of the colony as well as being again in possession of her property.

THEY ARE SAFE, ANYWAY.

Yesterday afternoon Dr. McNeill, of Charlottetown, who is here attending the meeting of the Medical Association, received a telegram from the secretary of the Y. M. C. A. in London, Ont., conveying the information that Mr. Ed. Peters, with his wife and two children were not in the ruins of one of the falling buildings in which accident eight persons were killed on Tuesday afternoon. Dr. McNeill is not acquainted with any Mr. Peters in London, nor does he know the sender of the telegram. There is no other Dr. McNeill attending the convention, nor, so far as is known, is there any by that name in the province. Dr. McNeill wished to make this telegram public in case friends of Mr. and Mrs. Peters might be anxious.

DID NOT PAY FOR SELLING THE MEAT

Jewish Congregation Suing Myer Gordon for Breach of Agreement—A Furniture Mending Bill.

In the civil court this morning before Judge Ritchie there was a lengthy docket but only a couple of interesting cases.

A stranger in the city brought with him a child's crib which he purchased for $4.95. In transit from England a piece of wood about nine inches long was damaged and he left it at a furniture dealer's to be repaired. He was billed for $5.50 for the job which he declined to pay. He showed the broken crib to another firm who said the charge should not be more than fifty cents. Before the case came to trial the furniture dealer accepted the offer for the defendant.

The Jewish congregation of Yfrass was represented in the court by Nathan Draper, president; Jacob Rubins, secretary; and Max Gross, witness, vice-president. The suit was against Myer Gordon for the sum of $33.33 claimed by them under an agreement whereby the defendant was to pay them $400 a year for the privilege of selling to the congregation meat slaughtered by the rabbi. They claimed that he had not paid them for the month of June.

The agreement between the parties was very plainly written in Hebrew but the judge and other court officials could not read it. Dr. A. W. MacRae, for the plaintiffs, had the agreement translated, as did J. King Kelly, who appeared for the defendant. As there was a material difference in the translations the matter was laid over for a week when both sides will accept the decision of Rabbi Rabinowitz, who will read the agreement to the court.

POLICE COURT

In the police court this morning Henry McDonald, charged with being drunk and disorderly was remanded.

Richard Clark said he was not drunk when arrested on King Square last evening but his heart was affected. He was sent into jail to have his heart examined.

Mamie Ferrish and John Brady found together drunk at the east end of British street forfeited deposits of eight dollars each.

SCORCHING AUTOMOBILES IN A FATAL COLLISION

Would-be Record Breaker at Coney Island Was Killed, and Two Companions Injured.

NEW YORK, July 18.—While rushing along at express train speed, two automobiles filled with merry-makers returning from Coney Island, crashed head on early today on the dimly lighted ocean parkway, and as a consequence one man is dead and two others are fatally injured. The dead man, Thos. E. Donovan, of New York, was impaled on the spokes of his own machine which carried no lights. Running alone at sixty miles an hour, Donovan determined to take the other side of the road. He did not see Chapman Roupes, driving a powerful machine, approaching in the opposite direction and running about forty miles an hour. The two machines were upon each other before the drivers realized what had happened. With a fearful crash the machines collided and were reduced to scrap iron. Donovan was thrown from his machine and the spokes of a broken wheel pierced his breast. Roupes and his companion were found beneath the wreckage. Donovan died in the hospital and physicians say that the two wounded men will probably die. A third auto which came flying along the avenue immediately after the accident, nearly collided with the wreckage.

KARL HAU ON TRIAL FOR KILLING HIS MOTHER-IN-LAW

KARLSRUHE, Ger., July 18.—The trial of Karl Hau, formerly Professor of Roman Law in George Washington University, D. C., on the charge of having murdered his mother-in-law, Frau Molter in Baden-Baden on November 6 of last year, was resumed here this morning.

Hau appeared in the court room looking as cheerful and content as yesterday. He surprised the court by making important admissions concerning incidents of which he hitherto refused to speak. When the presiding judge called handwriting experts to identify Hau's handwriting in the dispatch sent from Paris, calling Frau Molter to that city, Hau anticipating the testimony arose from his seat and said that in order to expedite the case he would admit that he wrote this dispatch. The judge inquired whether or not he sent it off, but this Hau declined to answer. Hau refused to say whether his wife knew that this message had been sent.

Phillip Uhlig, a merchant of Frankfurt on the Main, testified he saw a man on November 6, in the Frankfurt railroad station, wearing a false beard and moustache. The judge here asked Hau to put on similar disguises and Uhlig then recognized him as the same man.

Anna Lerch, who left Washington with Mr. and Mrs. Hau in the capacity of maid servant, testified that when Hau left London to return to the bar, he cautioned his wife to keep his London address secret. The wife asked if she might write to her mother, and Hau replied "Of course."

THE GOLD STORAGE PLANT

About sixty men are now employed at the site for the new gold storage plant off Main street. The work is being pushed along with all possible haste and already a great deal has been accomplished. Two pile-drivers are at the site and about half of the piling has been driven.

Since building operations have commenced changes have had to be made on several houses which adjoin the lot. It was found that these houses extended several feet into the lot granted to the gold storage company, and as every foot of ground was needed for the new structure, the rear portions of these houses had to be cut off. The work occupied several days. The houses were replastered and shingled in the rear and as far as can be learned, the tenants raised no objections to the alterations made.
