OTTAWA, April 15.—Mr. Charrton introduced a bill to amend the act to restrict the employment of aliens. He desires to remove all restrictions prohibiting manufacturers from importing skilled labor in cases where their industries are already established. He thought of the existing handicaps to Americans opening up new factories will work against the interests of workers.

Mr. Laurier stated that the granting of provincial autonomy to the Northwest Territories, and increase in the number of senators for Manitoba and Northwest Territories were under consideration.

Mr. Blair in reply to a question by Mr. Kendall stated that since 1896 the intercolonial trade has declined two increases which changed the pay for the man from $1.50 to $1.75 per day, and from $1.75 to $1.80.

Mr. Haggart thought that the work must be done in the near future, it was the key to the solution of the transportation question. He was glad to see Laurier favored the scheme.

Mr. Tarte moved for a copy of the order-in-council appointing the transportation commission. Mr. Laurier replied that no such order had been passed.

Mr. Brock's bill to compel the owners of vessels and railway cars to provide animals in transit with proper care was taken up by Mr. Blair. The bill was deferred until Mr. Blair has a chance of examining its terms.

Mr. Clarke called the attention of the government to the presence of rail- way accidents in Canada. He favored the prompt appointment of a competent official to investigate all such accidents and fix responsibility on the proper persons.

Mr. Ingram blamed the railway companies for disease and accidents, and experienced men were displaced by cheap and inexperienced hands.

Hon. Mr. Scott called the attention of the senate to the death of Mr. Gillmor. The suddenness of his death had been a stroke to his friends. He occupied a very important place in his own province. From 1856 to 1876 he was in the provincial legislature and afterwards till 1896 in the commons. He attracted friends on both sides of the house. He thought they would extend to his widow their deep sympathy and their sense of the loss of a valuable member.

country, and would not imitate the example of the liberal party, who, while in opposition had furnished United States immigration agents with splendid material with which to assault Canadian industry.

Mr. Frenontaine in a recent speech had credited the growth of the trade to the Fielding tariff, and the people were given no credit for anything. If they professed to be benefited by the tariff, they were altogether too modest, because the whole world was evidently profited by the Fielding tariff.

excuse, and this year it was a little of both. Laurier had boasted that he had proposed for further protection. It was to reconcile them that the government acted in this indefinite manner. He referred to the statement that Fielding had promised relief to manufacturers, and that that policy tripping was not in the interest of the country.

Mr. Borden then drew attention to the needs of the country for further protection. Canada should provide for the protection of her legitimate established industries, so as to ensure as far as possible permanency under conditions of depression as well as in a period of expansion, inviting capital and attracting labor to establish other industries, which the resources and raw material of the country amply justified should be encouraged.

Our labor should be utilized in conversion of our raw material into the finished products required for our own country. It is had policy to export our raw material and send laborers abroad to manufacture it, and to send after both our money to pay for the finished products.

Mr. Borden stated that the duty on flour would be removed and to become a great agricultural country and the development of our enormous natural resources would furnish markets for the products of our farms. Farmers must be protected, and in this Canada can learn lessons from the United States.

The government requested the item to stand. Mr. Ingram moved the item to be struck out, but it passed, 48 to 18.—Adjourned.

S. S. WEBB IN WESTMORLAND CO. This has been a Sunday school week in the organized work of Westmorland county. A series of conventions has been held as follows:

On Monday, 14th, at Shediac, where Jas. Frier is president and Miss Jessie McDougall is secretary. The afternoon session consisted of Bible reading and conference on practical work of the schools. The evening was one more of direct address. The field secretary was the chief worker. Rev. T. Pearce conducted the opening.

Two sessions were held at Dorchester on Tuesday in the Presbyterian church, Rev. D. Coburn in the chair and E. C. W. Chapman, the acting secretary, presiding. Mr. J. Hanington expressed his regrets at absence on supreme court business. This was a convention of much energy and interest. The discussions were very practical, and the field secretary was well sustained by the pastors—Rev. B. H. Thomas, T. Harrison and the local secretary. The convention was held at several evening meetings of Sunday school interest in different sections of the parish and also arranged at an early date for home to home visitation.

The officers elected are: Hon. Justice Hanington, president; Rev. B. H. Thomas, S. C. W. Chapman, secretary; Rev. W. H. Harrison and Mr. Tattersall additional members of executive.

On Wednesday, the two sessions were held at Pointe du Beuf, W. C. Fillmore presiding and Miss Isabel Trueman as secretary. Superintendents related related the conditions of their schools. Some of these indicated a gratifying progress and encouragements to further possibilities were offered. The field secretary gave a normal drill to the Sunday school teachers present on the subject of recent lessons, the Apostle Paul.

The evening addresses were by Rev. T. Marshall and the field secretary. The following were elected as new officers: Mr. Trueman of Jolicoeur as president, Miss Colpitts of Pointe du Beuf as secretary with others on the executive. The president made a few appropriate remarks as he took the chair.

The Sackville convention was held in the Methodist school room, Rev. Geo. Steel presiding and Mr. Tingley acting as secretary and Mrs. Tingley as secretary. After opening devotions by the chairman, Rev. Dr. Andrews opened the first subject, Some Needs Discerned in Our Sunday Schools. He emphasized teacher's equipment, spiritual lessons, and the account of the Teacher's Opportunities in Contact With His Class, and Some Encouragements to the Sunday School.

The new officers chosen are: D. Cameron, president; Rev. Dr. Andrews, secretary; Miss Louise Paisley, vice-president; D. Ward, R. Duncan and Mrs. M. Cahill additional members of the executive.

SIX YEARS OF SUFFERING AND HELPLESSNESS

THE DISTRESSING CASE OF MR. CLOUTIER, WHO WAS UNABLE TO WORK OR SLEEP, AND ENDURED TERRIBLE HEADACHES AND BACK PAINS.

Was in Four Hospitals

BUT DOCTORS COULD NOT CURE HIM, NERVOUS SYSTEM WAS ENTIRELY UNDERMINED A MARVELLOUS CURE EFFECTED BY DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD.

The case of Mr. Simon Cloutier, shoemaker, 110 Lagache street, Montreal, deserves more than passing notice, because his case was unusually severe.

For six long years Mr. Cloutier was an invalid, unable to attend to his work, and much of this time was spent in the hospitals of Montreal. The doctors gave him no hope of recovery, but, on the contrary, told him that he would never be well again.

A treatment that will restore to good health a person whose case was considered hopeless, must be of more than ordinary value, and this is only one of a series of remarkable cures that have been brought about by the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Mr. Simon Cloutier, shoemaker, 110 Lagache street, Montreal, Quebec, states—

"For six years I was not able to work, my nerves were all unstrung, and my digestion bad. I had severe attacks of headache, could not sleep, and suffered with shooting pains in the small of my back. I was in four hospitals, but the doctors could not cure me. They said I would never be well again. In spite of their decision I began the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food some months ago, and I have now been at work for over two weeks, and believe that my health has been fully restored. It is a pleasure for me to add my testimony to the hosts of others from persons who have been cured by this wonderful medicine."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food

Effects thorough and radical cures because it builds up blood and nerves, the very foundation of health. It tones, strengthens and revitalizes the system, reconstructs the wasted tissues, creates new nerve force and prevents and cures diseases caused by weak blood and exhausted nerves. 50 cents a box, 6 boxes for $2.50. Perkins expressly under the doctor's orders. It is believed that there remains much to be explained in the case, and it is possible interesting developments will be forthcoming before long.

Miss Kidston is a native of Nova Scotia, but removed with her family ten or twelve years ago to Moncton, where her father conducted a store. Business not being good, he and his family left for Boston. The property in Moncton was mortgaged to the late James McAllister, and it is understood it is to be sold under foreclosure on June 16 next. The firm of Manchester, Robertson & Allison of St. John was interested in the settlement of Kidston's affairs at one time, and figure in the foreclosure proceedings.

The hearing, which was in the Roxbury district court, consumed a day and a half. The proceedings were opened Wednesday forenoon and were finished just before noon. It was brought out by Professor Wood of Harvard, a well known expert on poisons, that many articles in the papers of Mrs. Perkins, the servant in the house, and one of those who partook of the poisoned coffee, testified that she had purchased rough on rats, a mixture which Prof. Wood found contained arsenic. The mixture was used for rodents.

The most sensational testimony was that given by Special Officer Joseph E. Keen of Roxbury, who said that on the night of the poisoning, Miss Kidston exclaimed to him that Mrs. Diggins and Mrs. Hurd, the janitor's wife, must have poisoned her, as they both disliked her. Since the peculiar case has been before the public, many have held the theory that the poisoning of the three women was accidental. The evidence against Miss Kidston was at no time considered strong.

At yesterday's hearing, Mrs. Fanny E. Shorey, sister of Miss Kidston, was a witness for the defence. She told of her sister's whereabouts during the past few years.

Rev. Alexander D. MacKinnon, pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, and a former Nova Scotian, testified as to defendant's good character, and a minister from the Rutgers street Baptist church, at which Miss Kidston is an attendant, did likewise.

The defence sought to show that Mrs. Diggins was addicted to the liquor habit, and his final address was made as comfortable as possible. This morning further examination of the wound will be made and it is likely that the leg will be amputated. The boy has a good constitution and a plucky spirit, so the doctors fear no fatal results from the terrible injury.

Robert Townsend, a well known citizen of Woodstock, died last night. He had been in ill health for a long time.
