A Change
"We must economize," he said peremptorily.
"I'm so glad!" his wife exclaimed.
"You take the announcement more good naturedly than usual."
"Yes; it's pleasant to hear you use the plural pronoun. Ordinarily when there is any economizing needed you expect me to do it all."

Waiting for Christmas
(Edgar A. Guest, in Detroit Free Press)
I need new shirts and need 'em badly.
The socks I have are thin and worn;
But wife declares she'll darn 'em gladly.
If I won't buy till Christmas morn,
My collars now are frayed and spitting.
Of gloves I've not a decent pair,
But she declares it wise and fitting.
To wait, I may get things to wear.
My neckties all are torn and tattered,
My slippers out at toe and heel.
My fancy vest is gray spattered,
I think it's pork or lamb or veal.
To buy such things just now she warns me,
Is simply throwing away,
And so, though ragged stuff adorns me,
I'm hanging on till Christmas Day.

An Invitation
A good story is told of an elder in an English church who on one occasion had to take the pulpit in the absence of the minister at the last moment. He got through the first part of the service all right, but on getting up to give the sermon he found his difficulty then. He started with, "Brethren (pause)—b-b-brethren (pause)—b-b-b-brethren, if any of you wants the concept taken out of you come up here."

Disappointing
Bill—Did you say, his first song was disappointing? Jill—Yes. He sang "I Am Going Far Away, Far Away to Leave You Now," and he didn't go.

SUNFLOWER VALUABLE
Both Seed and Stock are Extensively Used in Russia

Americans do not regard the sunflower, which is said to be one of our own native plants, as being of much practical service, but in Russia it is utilized in many ways.

There the seeds are eaten in immense quantities, raw or roasted, as peanuts are in America, and the oil obtained by pressing the seeds is an important article of food. The frequent religious feast days in Russia restrict the use of meat and lead to a large consumption of vegetable oil, and the manufacture of sunflower oil has consequently grown to considerable dimensions in that country. The best seeds yield an oil that compares favorably with olive oil for table purposes.

Even the upper classes in Russia, it is said, eat the seeds, the larger and finer ones being quite equal to most nuts in respect of palatability and wholesomeness. The stalks and dried leaves are highly prized for fuel, being in some parts of the empire almost the only available substitute for wood. An acre of sunflowers will yield many cords of good fuel.

The oil appears to have more of the general properties of olive oil than has any other known vegetable oil. It takes about a bushel of seeds to make a gallon of oil, and fifty bushels of seeds can be grown on one acre of land. As the oil sells at about a dollar a gallon, the profit is large.

At one time purified sunflower oil was used quite extensively to adulterate pure olive oil. It is of a pale yellowish color and decidedly palatable.

In addition to the oil from the seeds, the stalks when green and the oil cake make excellent fodder. The fiber of the stalks, which is fine, silky and strong, also has a value. In China it is woven into beautiful fabrics, and it is believed that by the use of proper machinery it might be used most profitably in this country.

Deafness Cannot be Cured
—by local applications, as they can reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Sent for circulars free.
