THE SEMI-WEEKLY TELEGRAPH, ST. JOHN, N. B., SATURDAY, MAY 21, 1904. ST. JOHN MARKETS. CONSOLIDATION our vans at $200 each... There was but little fluctuation in the produce market last week. The quotations on butter are unchanged, but there is a decidedly easier feeling in that article. Case eggs are a trifle firmer at 13 to 15 cents.

In groceries and provisions the most marked change has been in sugars, which have advanced ten cents on all grades. The raw sugar market is rather unsettled and there have been two changes in the price during the last four days.

Cornmeal is down and is worth at the present $2.75 to $2.80 per barrel. Lard both pure and compound has dropped % cent a pound. Porto Rico molasses is worth 35 to 36 cents. In the fish line Pollock has dropped to $2.90 and $3.
