Circuit Court.

THE QUEEN VS. JOHN MCRORY.

The prisoner, John McRory, charged with an assault with intent to rob, was brought into court this morning, the Attorney-General appearing for the Crown, and D. Jordan, Jr., Esq., for the defence.

The Jury were :—

J. Stewart,	S. Mitchell,
E. C. Moriarty,	W. Morrison,
X. Perry.	J. Colwell,
J. B. Hammond,	G. Seely,
Jos. Dunn,	R. Fletcher,
A. Sinclair,	Chas. Nelson.

The Attorney General opened the case for the Crown with a short speech, stating the circumstances of the case as he expected to prove them, after which the witnesses for the prosecution were called.

Bernard McDermott, sworn: He said he was on Sheffield street with the prisoner and another party on the night of the 29th October last. He fell in with the prisoner about 15 minutes before the assault was made, on Sheffield street a little above Carmarthen street, Alexander Gillespie being also with witness. He talked with prisoner a few moments and then told him to leave him. McRory then went behind witness and remained there a short time. Witness walked away. Witness went away alone but Gillespie was behind witness though not with prisoner. Witness thought Gillespie left first. Witness went in the direction of the Ballast Wharf after Gillespie left. McRory was with him at that time but being told by witness to leave him he stopped. Witness then walked about ten yards. McRory ran up behind witness and caught him by the arms so that witness could not use them. He tried at the same time to get his right hand into the right pocket of witness' pants, but did not succeed. Witness had a watch and $3 or $4 about him. He had some silver in the pocket in question. Witness tripped prisoner and both fell. Witness struck prisoner twice across the face with a small cane, and the prisoner ran across the street and into a yard. Sergeant Pattison of the police force then came up and brought policeman McLaren and another of the force with him. They went after McRory and fetched him into the street. The witness told the police that the prisoner had assaulted and tried to rob him and they then took the prisoner to the station. On his cross-examination by Mr. Jordan the witness said he had not been drinking freely on the 29th October. He would not swear that he had taken nothing with Gillespie and the prisoner that evening. Gillespie did not sing out to prisoner "Is that you Johnny?" and the prisoner did not answer "Yes; it is." He had known the prisoner for a long time and had had no hard feeling toward him before this. McRory did not trip over Hatfield's steps and fall against him. Witness did not at that time turn around and strike McRory. Witness would not swear that his coat was not buttoned. Gillespie was not with witness when he was assaulted.

After a short re-examination by the Attorney General the witness was dismissed.

The next witness called was Sergt. Pattison. His testimony went to show that on the evening in question he arrested the prisoner on some complaint of McDermott. The sergeant stated also that he heard a sound like a blow or stroke which induced him to proceed in search of the parties at first. He found McRory in a yard on the north side of the street. Policemen McLaren and Sullivan were with him. They searched the yard while he stood at the entrance. The prisoner was without a hat and was bleeding from a cut over his eye. McDermott gave him in charge for assaulting him with intent to rob. McDermott had no hat on and was holding his hand to his mouth when witness first saw him. Gillespie appeared to have been drinking very freely indeed.

Cross-examined.—McDermott was sober but might have been drinking. He did not appear to have been the recipient of very bad usage. There was no mud on his clothes. When witness first went down he found McDermott and Gillespie together. The night was not very dark. If he had known the men witness could have recognized them across the street.

Joseph McLaren testified to hearing some one say "Keep away from me," and to arresting the prisoner in the yard.

Robert Sullivan's testimony was similar, and with it the case closed for the prosecution.

In opening the defence Mr. Jordan stated briefly the circumstances which he intended to bring before the Court and jury.

Alexander Gillespie was the first witness for the defence. He said he was down on Sheffield street with McDermott on the evening of the 29th October; that McRory was standing on the steps of Hatfield's house; he jumped off the steps and fell against McDermott; that McDermott cut him over the face with his cane and shouted police; that the policeman came down and McDermott complained of McRory. The police then went in search of McRory and brought him out of the yard. They told him (witness) to go home. Witness saw nothing of the prisoner's pinioning McDermott's arm behind him. Neither fell. When prisoner jumped on McDermott's back, McDermott threw him off and cut him in the face.

Cross examined—McDermott, the first time of drinking, took brandy. (McDermott, on his examination, swore he took nothing stronger than ginger wine.) Some one was on Hatfield's stoop. Witness asked him, "Is that you, Johnny?" He often spoke to persons whom he knew, when he met them, in that way. He could not say whether prisoner caught hold of McDermott's arms or not. McDermott caught his hat when the prisoner jumped on his back. McDermott said he was being robbed by the prisoner.

The witness was then allowed to leave the stand, and the court adjourned until two o'clock.

Eaton's Commercial College,

RITCHIE'S BUILDING, St. John, N. B.

OUR course of study is comprehensive, and adapted not only to such as have enjoyed the best educational advantages, but also to those whose education is deficient, from want or neglect of early opportunities or other causes. Those who desire to engage in Mercantile pursuits will receive that which is invaluable to them in the safety and despatch with which they will be able to conduct their own business or that of others. It gives the Mechanic an opportunity to take a front rank, by reason of superior ability to transact with correctness the business of his calling. To those engaging in Agricultural life it gives a practical knowledge and experience in business, which will enable them to meet the shrewd business man with confidence. And to that large class who are uncertain what course to pursue, it is not only the best stepping stone to lucrative and permanent business of their own, but also a ready means of obtaining regular employment.
