QUEEN'S COUNTY ELECTION!

No. 2.

It is not often that you see my name in the public print, but at the present time you will oblige by allowing me a little space in your valuable paper. In looking over the papers of late I feel moved upon to lift my pen in defence of right. We feel as that the Baptists have been insulted. Strange to say amongst the 1400 Baptists in the county of Westmovland, not one is fit for a member in the House of Arsemily. How is it that we are all and the strength of the county of the strength of the strength of the county of the strength of the strength of the county of the strength of the county of the strength of the county of the strength of the stren

Convention said, "O, it would not do to nominate a Baytist." If so, shame to the man that said it! We have had Baptists in the House of Assembly and we may have them there again. There is much said about the Government, and many are alarmed, fearing it will be overlanded and about the Government, and many are alarmed, fearing it will be overlanded as the state of the population. There is a great deal as a somethed to the population. There is a great deal as all about the school law. A free school is a good thing, and we have nothing to said about the school law. A free school is a good thing, and we have nothing to said about the school law. A free school is a good thing, and we have nothing to the system have causaid much dissatisfaction. ward-too thin, Mr. Smith. Try once more for the cigars. That spoke his little piece at the meeting at Moncton last night. The hired claquers and the boys applauded, but they would do the same for Ezra P. or any one else. wise or foolish, who afforded them the same amusement. The voters, however, were rather silent, and besides they were rather tired of that speech, they had heard it too often. They listened to it in Dorchester two years ago—they heard it a fortnight since in Sackville—at Steeves' Mountain on Tuesday, and at Salisbury on Wednesday. The Pope was denounced, of course; so was Landry; so was McKenzie. He drew it mild on Hicks, but the "trouble" commenced with Hanington. Of him they were told to beveare. Savagely, vindictively, malleiously did he ring the changes on Hanington; but, as time will show, our "clever young friend" may have counted his chickens too soon.

Dominion Officials in Local Politics.

A correspondent writes: At the meeting in Moncton in the interest of the Government ticket on Thursday evening last one or two Dominion Government officials were quite prominent in their attempts to get up enthusiasm, one of them, who has an office in the freight department, continually crying out "Hear! hear!" and making tremendous gestures with his hands and feet. Another official, whose whole attention should be devoted to the track on his section of the railway at Moncton, should be enabled to give at least a very small portion of his time to his legiti nat ibusiness for fearthat for want of proper attention on his part the track may get out of order and endanger the lives of some of Her Majesty's subje t. Does the Hon. A. J. Smith, who is the member of the Government for Westmorland County, and a brother of Mr. E. J. Smith, who is on the ticket, allow Government employes to neglect their work to establish another family allow Government employes to neglect their work to establish another family compact in this County?

A correspondent informs us that a public meeting was held in Shediac on the third day of March last, at which meeting Mr. Smith was one of the speakers and is reported by his advocate, the Times, as follows:

"He (Mr. E. J. S.) said to his brother that the projected canal had better be abandoned and the money expended on a railway and he wished him to have the railroad from Cape Tormentine built up the shore to Shediac. He wished to se Cupee Tormentine road built "along shore."
