Washington, Dec. 7.

Congress convened to-day, and President Grant delivered his annual message. The message deals more elaborately with national affairs than has previously mark ed similar decuments from the same hand. The President argues strongly for a resumption of specie payments at the earliest practicable moment, He attributes the present depression in trade to speculations which a specie basis would cure, and initiate and perpetuate a healthy activity in all departments of business. Foreign relations are amicable, except with Spain, where the questions of the Virginius seizure and some other differences resulting from Cuban affairs are still pending. The attention of Congress is called directly to the necessity and propriety of interference, in conjunction with other foreign powers, in putting a stop to the war in Cuba. The President devo'es much space to the political troubles in the Southern States, justifies his devotes much space to the political trou-bles in the Southern States, justifies his own action, and refers to Congress the permanent settlement of the difficulties.

THE RECIPROCITY TREATY. The Montreal Herald intimates that the sliding scale clause has been eliminated from the proposed Reciprocity Treaty.

(Special to Daily News.) OTTAWA, Dec. 7. The Ministerial organs confirm the an nouncement made by the Opposition press sometime ago that George Brown intended affecting modifications in the draft of the Reciprocity Treaty. They now state on authority that the sliding scale in the proposed reduction of duties will be abandoned, and instead the free interchange of manufactured articles will at once come into force.
