Meetings.

(1) Meetings may be called by the Commodore, as provided for in the Constitution.

(2) Nine members shall constitute a quorum for transaction of business.

(3) The Secretary shall, as far as possible, notify each member of the Club of each special, general, and adjourned meeting of the Club, by mailing to each member, respectively, a written notice, at least forty-eight hours prior thereto, but the omission of such notices, or any defect in connection therewith, shall in no way affect the validity of any such meeting.

Order of Business.

The Commodore, or, in his absence, the officer of the highest rank present, shall take the chair and call the meeting to order.

The members being seated, the Secretary shall call the roll.

A quorum being present, the order of business shall be as follows :—

(1) Reading of minutes of last meeting, which shall stand approved if not corrected.
