

Mayor to be a Member of the Council, &c.

V. And be it enacted, That the Mayor so elected shall be to all intents a Member of the City or Town Council, and that any person qualified to be elected a Councillor for any City or Town, shall be qualified to be elected Mayor thereof; and the Mayor shall be in addition to the number of Members of which the Council would be composed without this Act, and the same number of Aldermen and Councillors shall be elected in every case as would be elected without this Act. 5

Vacancies
how filled.

VI. And be it enacted, That if any vacancy shall occur in the office of Mayor of any such City or Town, at any period more than three months before the next day for the Annual Municipal Election, an Election shall be had in each Ward for a new Mayor, in like manner as if a councillor were required to be then elected for each such Ward, but if such period do not exceed three months, then a Mayor shall be elected by the Members of the Council from among themselves to serve until the next Annual Election. 15

If the Election be not contested in any Ward

VII. And be it enacted, That if in any Ward the election be not contested, so that no Poll shall be taken, then all the Municipal Electors therein shall be held to have voted for the Candidate whose Election shall not be contested, and they shall be reckoned accordingly in suming up the total number of votes given for such Candidate in the City or Town. 20
