

Now Published: 1923 (Fifth) Edition

'A.B.C.' British Columbia Lumber Trade Directory

AND YEAR BOOK

A Complete Directory of the Lumber and Logging Trade

CONTENTS

- Section I.—Official Directory of Government Forestry Branch; Directory of Associations.
- Section II.—List of Lumber and Shingle Mills giving details of management equipment and capacity.
- Section III.—Geographical Directory of Mills.
- Section IV.—Manufacturers of Special Products; Boxes, Sash and Doors, Cooperage, etc.
- Section V.—Logging Companies with details of management, capacity and equipment.
- Section VI.—Lumber Wholesalers; Log Brokers, Timber Cruisers.
- Section VII.—"Who's Who" in the B. C. Lumber Trade.
- Section VIII.—Towing Companies; Tugboats: Rates.
- Section IX.—Customs Tariffs on Lumber in Foreign Countries.
- Section X.—Timber Laws of British Columbia; a Consolidation of all the laws dealing with timber.
- Section XI.—Technical and Statistical information. A short description of all the commercial woods of B. C.; The B. C. Log Scale complete; Statistics relating to the trade.
- Section XII.—Buyers' Guide—A directory of Mill Supply Houses.

A FEW TESTIMONIALS

Forest Branch Department of Lands, Victoria.—"Although it is contrary to the practice of the Department to give testimonials to the value of private publications, I can honestly say that the publication has been splendidly prepared and gives most valuable information both to the industry and general public, in fact it is invaluable."

The "Timberman," Portland.—"We find it of much value in our office in getting in touch with British Columbia firms."

B. C. Lumber and Shingle Manufacturers' Association Ltd.—"I want to compliment you on the splendid advance you have made in this year's issue. You are certainly making it of more and more value and I wish you all success."

Shingle Manufacturers' Association of B. C.—"The Directory shows very careful work and is certainly worth the price to anyone who wishes comprehensive information regarding the lumber industry in British Columbia. We have already made practical use of it."

B. C. Loggers Association.—"I notice in addition to bringing the information up-to-date you have added several new and informative sections which should prove very useful and you are to be complimented on the general excellence of the issue."

Timber Industries Council of British Columbia.—"The Directory is a useful and well gotten up publication."

Chapman Lumber Co., Winnipeg.—"We had one of your copies some time ago and found it very valuable."

C. M. McCoy, Minneapolis.—"Thanking you for your promptness in mailing same and congratulating you on the completeness of the book."

"A.B.C." Lumber Trade Directory.

PROGRESS PUBLISHING CO., LTD.
London Bldg., Vancouver.

Please send on approval one copy of 1923 Edition, cost of which is Four Dollars.

Name

Address